Police have new home

This column is to let the people of Acton know that the Halton Regional Police Service have moved to a new location at 38 Mill St. E., beside the Bank of Nova Scotia. Also, to express my thanks to the people at the olde Hide House, The Acton Tanner newspaper and others who assisted in obtaining the office at 12 Church St. that we have used for the past year and a half.

Several people have told me that they are happy to see the Halton Regional Police Service back on Mill Street where we are more visible and accessible. Several members of the community and the police service worked hard to bring about the change in location and I thank them all for their help. If you are happy to see the change I would appreciate a short note dropped off at my office or at The Acton Tanner addressed to me. An opinion in writing is very effective in demonstrating the community's needs, and in providing positive feedback to the officers in charge of the Halton Regional Police Service.

Playing cards is like riding a bike

SENIORS' REC NEWS

BY DOROTHY REDEKOP
About 30 people came to our Valentine's lunch of ham with pineapple, hash brown potatoes, salad and a special Valentine pastry.

Prizes were won by Eyvonne Van Der Heyden, Edna Rippon and Pat Taillefer. Lucky Eyvonne won the "guess the number of candies in the jar."

If anyone would like to come out and skate we have time on Wednesdays at 11 am.

We are having a few more people out to cards, but would welcome more. If you haven't played for years, come out and brush up. It is like riding a bike - you never really forget. We are not that perfect you know, but we have a good time and have plenty of laughs.

See you at the Centre.

NEW BABY?

Time to call Welcome Wagon. We'll bring congratulations and gifts for the whole family.
