

ACTON MINOR HOCKEY REPORT

NOVICE II

The Andy's Restaurant Novice II Sabers played an exhibition game against Milton and walked away with a hard fought 4-3 win.

The game went back and forth with Acton finally pulling away for good in the third period.

Craig Kirkwood and Greg Henry led the way offensively with a goal and two assists each, with Greg Black contributing a goal and an assist. Wade Kuiken-Rogers added the other Acton goal in the win. Jason Douthright also picked up an assist on the opening goal.

BANTAM II

The Bruce Hood Travel Bantam II squad had a week off after going a perfect 5-0 in the Tri County Round Robin Playoffs. However they did squeeze in two exhibition tilts, winning one and tying the other.

On Monday in Acton, the Bantams short-circuited the Caledon Hills Lightning by a score of 10-2. The visitors actually carried a 2-0 lead entering the second period before the floodgates opened and Acton took control of the game..

Center David Iacocca had the hat trick, while singles went to Stephen Monaghan, Mike Hyrn, Jason Peart, Greg Barenth, Joey Thompson, Rob Blyth, and Ryan Turpin.

Most noticeable on the assists sheet were Mike Smith's trio of helpers.

On Saturday in Acton, the Bruce Hood Travel Bantam II squad skated to a 4-4 tie against a select team from Oakville.

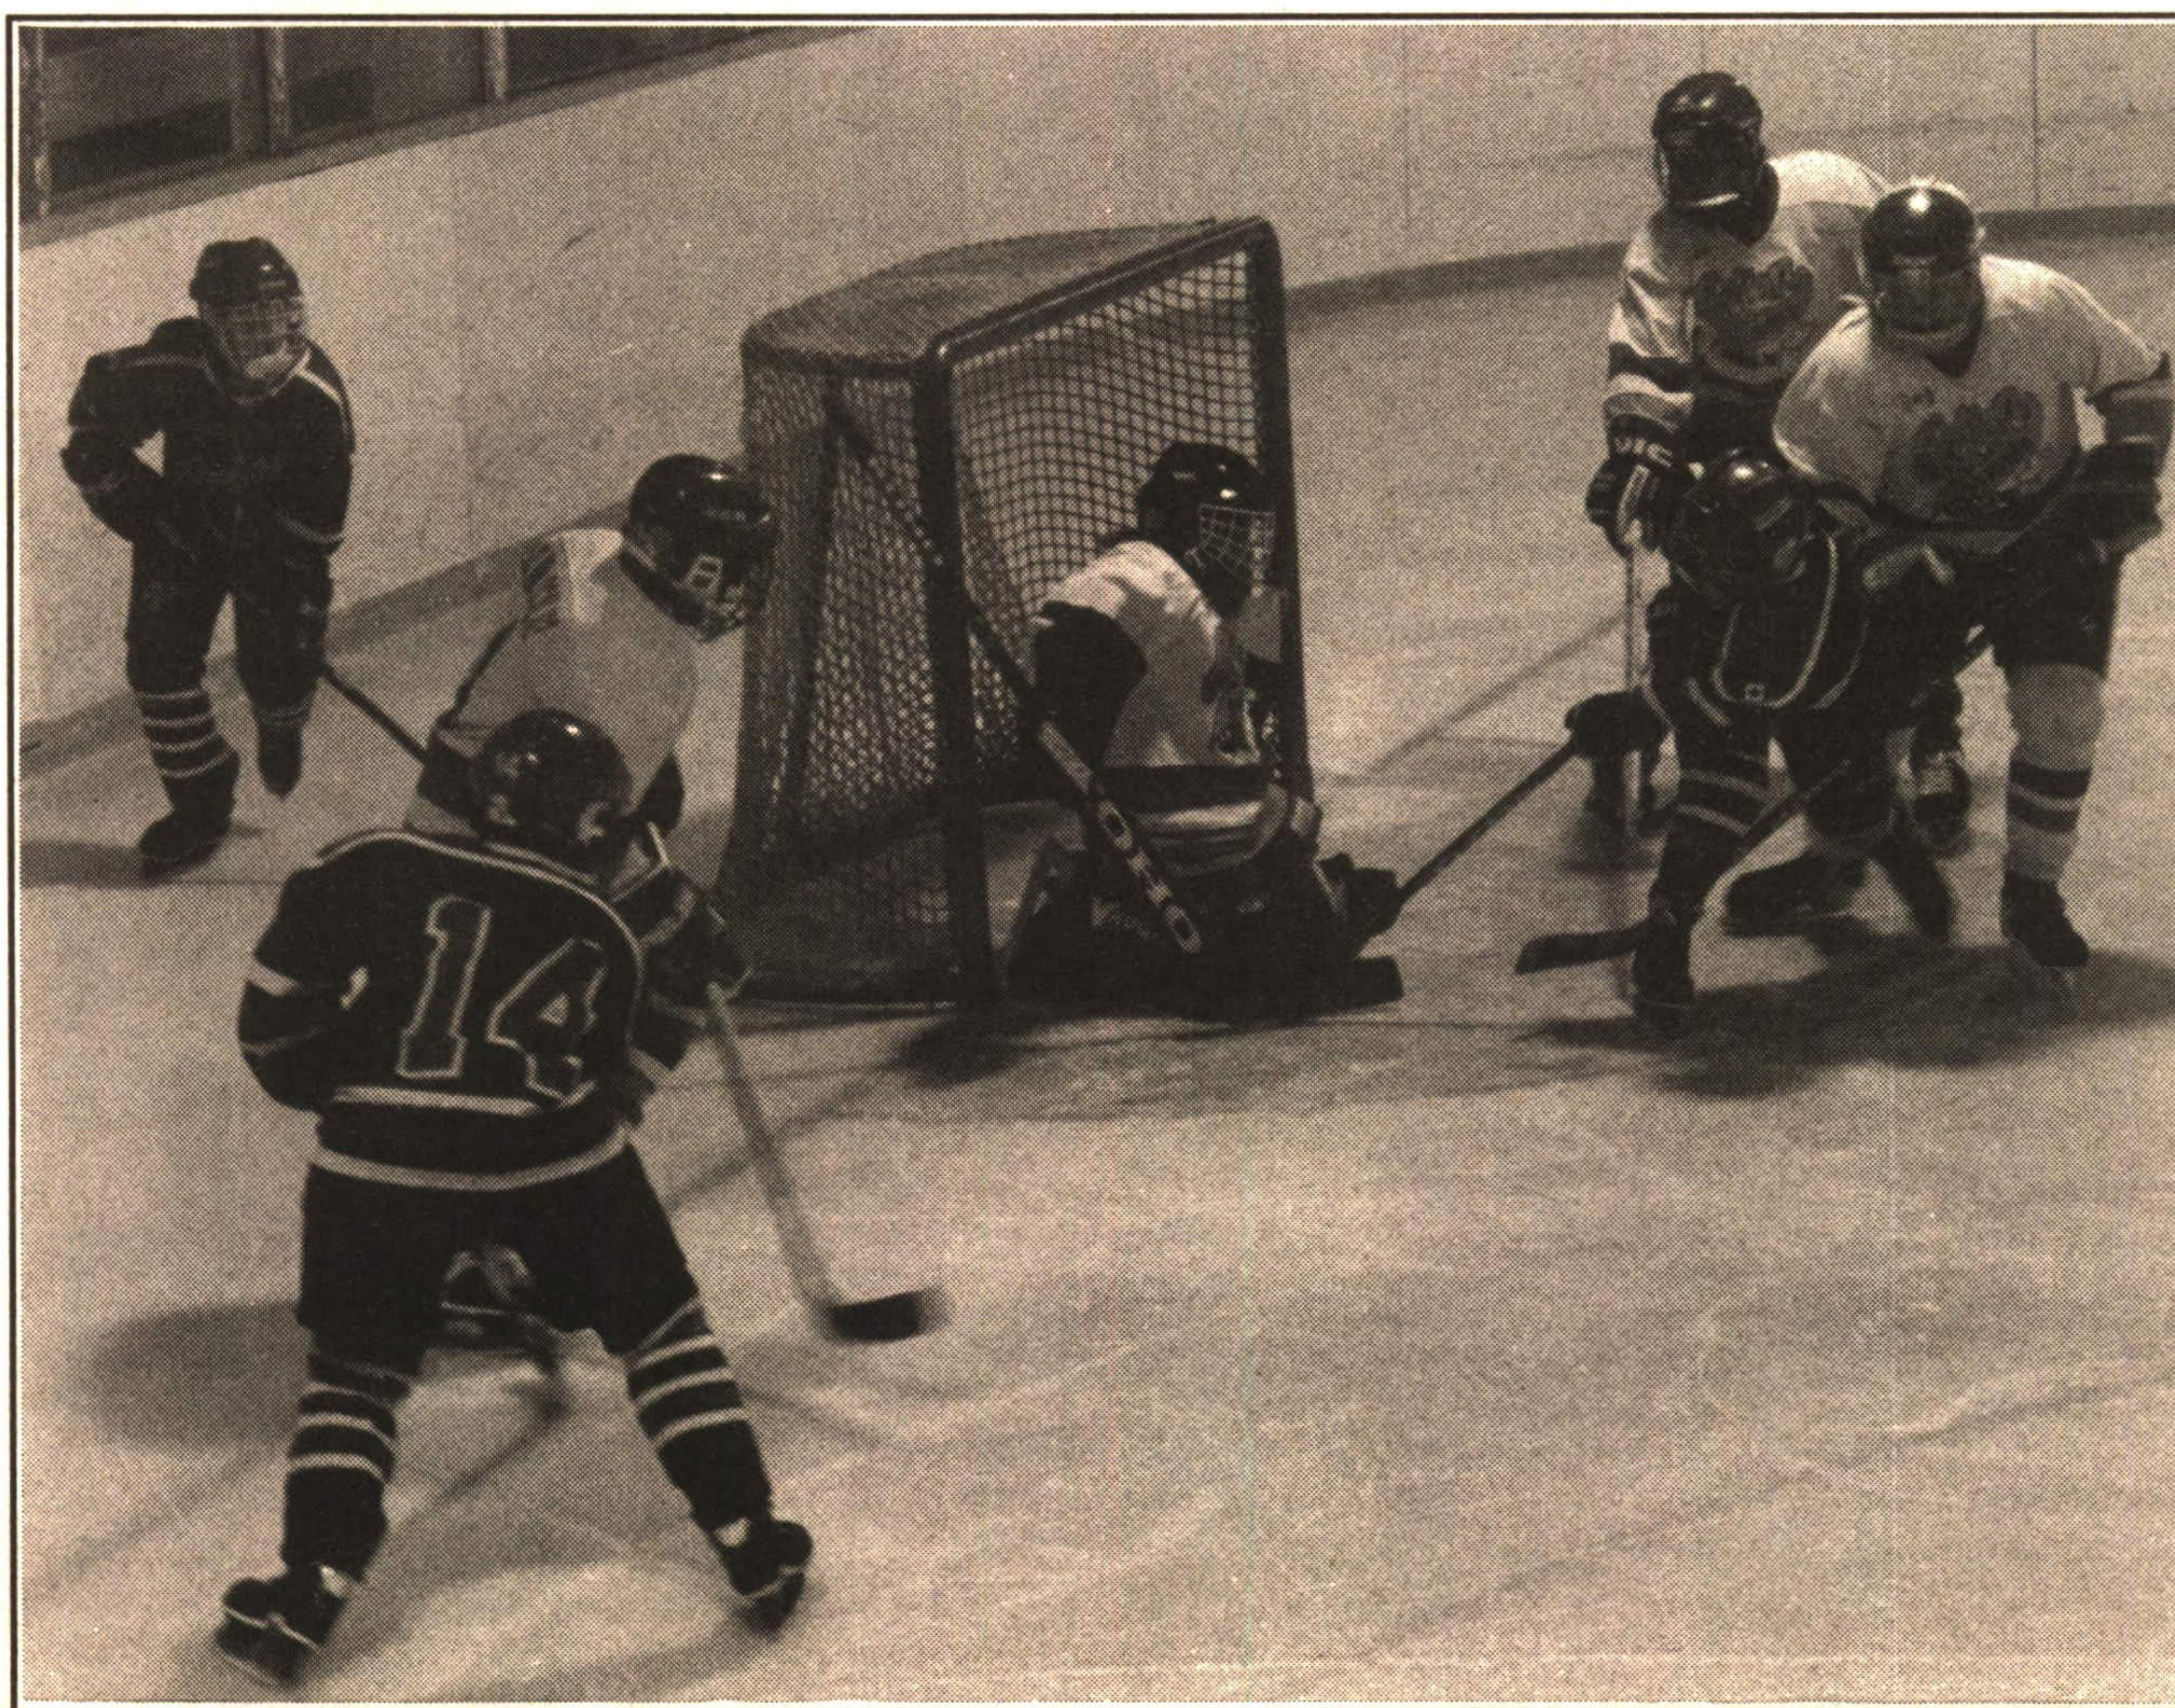

Goalie Robert Morris stopped some excellent Oakville attempts in helping his tem earn the 4-4 draw with Oakville..

Peart had another strong game with a pair of goals and assists.

Blyth and Smith also bulged the twine while Sam Brunelle, Monaghan, and Hyrn had assists.

Acton now waits until March 17, to start the Tri County Finals against Milton.

Acton has yet to lose in playoff action.
