

Historical Society wins Scadding Award

SPECIAL TO THE COMPASS

The Milton Historical Society was honoured recently for 21 years of outstanding contributions to the field of history by the Ontario Historical Society at its annual awards ceremonies on Saturday, May 2, at the OHS headquarters in Willowdale.

Founded in 1977 as a citizens' group to encourage the preservation of the Halton County Court House and Jail (now Milton's Town Hall complex), which had been abandoned by the Province after having been a significant part of the Milton community for over a century, Milton Historical Society was also cited for numerous other community awareness programs it has launched in the intervening years. Among these: a plaquing program for early buildings; a community awards program to annually recognize local contributions to preserving local history; annual Heritage Week celebrations; historic walks; a Newsletter; and a proliferation of many high-quality publications.

The Scadding Award of Excellence has been presented since 1973 to a historical society or heritage group that has made an outstanding contribution to the field of history. The award is named for Canon Henry Scadding, dynamic founder and first President of the Pioneer Association of Ontario, the forerunner of the Ontario Historical Society. A former educator at Upper Canada College, later Rector of Holy Trinity Church in Toronto, Scadding retired in 1875 to research and record local history authoring several books and scholarly papers, and earning a reputation as the "historian of Toronto". Scadding nurtured the fledgling organization from its beginnings at a "Pioneer and early Settlers Day" at the Industrial Exhibition (later the C.N.E.) in 1886 to become a respected force in the preservation of historical records and memorials in the Province of Ontario.

Fun Fair at Brookville

BY DONNA DANIELLI
CAMPBELLVILLE & AREA

It wouldn't seem like Spring without the annual Fun Fair at Brookville Public School. This year's Fair, held Saturday June 6th, will kick off with a fun run, starting at 9:00 a.m. at the Brookville Community Centre, although all other events will take place at the school itself.

Events this year include many favourites, as well as a lot of new attractions. Kid's Alley will be filled to the rim with exciting and colourful games, with many prizes to be won. Always a big hit with the kids, the Bouncing Dome will be present again.

If you're feeling lucky, why not support the Giant Raffle? Loaded with fabulous prizes donated by local businesses and community partners, it offers something for everyone.

You don't need to worry about going hungry at the Fair. The Food Court will be open early for coffee and donuts, followed by lunch for the rest of the day. Not only will you find barbecued hot dogs, hamburgers and cold drinks, but the Snow Cone machine offers a popular summer treat on a hot sunny day.

Take some time to wander the Market Place. It hosts a variety of community groups including craft tables, craft vendors, information groups and more.

Entertainment has never been easier that at this year's Fair. Centre Stage boasts non-stop performances, beginning at 10:30 with the Milton District High School Theatre Group. Comic Craig Douglas brings his wacky performance as professional juggler and unicyclist to the stage at noon. The Brookville Dance Team for the "Inside Pitch" will be performing an encore presentation from their school show.

Are you a reptile fan? Be sure to check out the big snakes at Sciensational Snakes on display throughout the day but also at Centre Stage for a hands on show.

A special thanks to all of the volunteers and generous people with donations that make this annual community event a fun and memorable day for friends, neighbours and community. For more information, please contact Janice Martin at 854-1849.
