

Have you thought about ...

SATELLITE TV?

Now you can enjoy

The Express Vu system includes our Dish, receiver and universal remote. It features everything talked about, including the on-screen program guide, digital picture and audio, and system upgradeability via satellite.

Once you have your system, you'll need to set it up.

For that, we recommend professional installation by our network registered installers.

Or buy the ExpressVu Self Installation Kit which includes a guide, step-by-step video and all the necessary hardware.

So what are you waiting for?

Better TV is finally here.

- Crystal Clear Digital Video Images and CD Quality sound.
- Easy to use, interactive on screen program guide, (like having a TV guide right in your TV).
- Watching different satellite channels on more than one TV.
- Pay only for the program packages you want with flexible programming choices.
