FUSION '98: FORGING LINKS

The Spirit Valley Experience Festival is back for its third season and so is the popular Visual Arts Exhibition. The show's curator, Susan Johnson, has issued a Call for Entry for Fusion '98: Forging Links in a New Reality which ties to both the union of the Spirit Valley Experience and the Eramosa-Guelph Township Collaborative Community Play.

This year's show, to be held in the Old Mill in the Rockwood Conservation Area on Saturday, September 19 will be a fully-inclusive show as opposed to the previous years' curated shows. The show is open to all residents of Ontario, who may submit two original works that reflect the show's themes, in any medium. Deadline for application is Thursday, July 2, 1998.

The Spirit Valley Experience is pleased to be associated with the Eramosa-Guelph Township Collaborative Community Play Project, whose goal is to produce a fully collaborative community play about the "marriage" of parts of Eramosa, Guelph, Nichol and Pilkington Townships.

For further information about Fusion '98, contact Susan Johnson at (519) 856-2364.
