Abraham Neilson IV
~ 1915~

Louisa & Rebecca ~ 1915~

married Mary Fish of Roxboroughshire before immigrating to New York. Historians will be interested to note the variation of surname spelling. In 1819 and applied for a land grant and received Lot 5, Conc. 6 in which Mary had nine children: Abraham was born in Scotland, Margaret, Francis Robert, Andrew and James were born in Esquesing. Their oldest son was the homestead. Margaret married George Wooding and lived in Erindale. George married Elizabeth Murray and moved to Cayuga. Helen married Andrew Esquesing that their nephew Andrew later farmed. They later moved to Esquesing County. Francis married Elizabeth Hayes of Seaforth and also settled in the 4th Line of Esquesing where Sherwood Hume now has his homestead as was his son, Will Neilson, of Hornby. James married Catherine and also had nine children. The oldest, Ann, married William Wilson. The last child, Graham and his wife Elizabeth McGregor settled in Prince Albert and was the grandmother of Charles Austin, the last Neilson descendant on the farm in 1935 and farmed it until selling in 1970 and moving to Esquesing. Their children were Abraham, Louisa and Rebecca. Charles Austin, Esquesing, is well known in Esquesing for his indexing of Esquesing newspapers. Genealogists extensively use these records which are available through the library's internet website. Marshall's brother Gary and sister Isobel remain in the Milton-Georgetown area.
