The Halton Waldorf School has enjoyed its location in the lovely village of Campbellville since opening in 1984. As well as providing a picturesque setting with access to fine hiking trails and recreational areas, the town of Campbellville has shown the members of the school hospitality, friendliness and generosity. It is with excitement tinged with pangs of regret that we announce the relocation of the Halton Waldorf School to its beautiful new campus at 2193 Orchard Road, Burlington. While we look forward to this new chapter in the life of our school, we must pause and offer our thanks to the people of Campbellville for their role in the growth of our school over the last 15 years.

There are many ways Campbellville has provided us with the opportunity to give thanks - the graciousness of the many local businesses that donated prizes for our fund-raising schemes and provided a spot for us to publicize these, the enthusiasm and participation many members of the community displayed for our fairs and festivals, the tolerance of the neighbours for the inconveniences caused by living close to our school (especially with the traffic chaos caused by our fairs) and the welcome extended to us by everyone. We shall truly miss the small-town warmth. We will continue to hold our fairs and festivals at our new location, and extend an invitation to everyone to join us in these celebrations. Thank you Campbellville; it has been a wonderful 15 years.
