TRIATHLON RACES: Congratulations to Nassagaweya's Harry Barnes on yet another first place finish. Harry has won every one of his races this year, including last week's Northern Triathlon in Orillia. This year's Milton Triathlon welcomed a record 1200 participants and perfect weather at Kelso! Ironically Harry did not participate since he was busy competing in (and winning) The Canadian Nationals in Edmonton. Special thanks to Harry and Kay (who stayed behind) for their work in organising this terrific event. Harry is off to the World Championships September 11th in Montreal. Good luck!

MEN OF SUMMER: How about those Masters! (It's not only the Blue Jays that are in a close race!) In the Brookville masters Slo-Pitch League, Miltowne Collision, Moffatt Scrap Iron & Bruce Hood Travel are all contenders for the Season Championship. Carson Equipment Rentals, Rideout Auto Parts and Ron Furik Re/Max are also having fun (we hope). The standings are not quite final, with key games delayed by power blackouts and rescheduled for this week. Playoffs start September 1st with final games set for the weekend of Sept. 25-26. Catch all the action (literally) at their website at www.globalserve.net/~bearmugs. It is truly 'outstanding in its field.'

BEEF 'N' BEANS BBQ: Milton District Hospital Foundation's Beef 'n' Beans BBQ & Auction at Pineland Farm in Hornby was truly spectacular. An announced light show (lightening) and water show (drenching down-pour) only added to the excitement. A huge thanks to all who donated items and/or attended the event.

Tell-all tea leaves

Newmarket resident Sandra Gothard (née Hargrave of Acton) consults with Brenda Roque of Burlington for a tea leaf reading at Wetherby's during Acton's Leathertown Festival. Brenda's readings were a popular attraction during the afternoon, with many attendants asking her advice. Donations for the tea leaf readings at the August 8th festival were given to the Cancer Society.
