NASSAGAWEYA STAKES: An exciting evening of racing featured both the Nassagaweya Stakes and the historic $350,000 Canadian Pacing Derby. Dragon Again won the Derby with a track record time of 1:49.1, also the second fastest mile in Canadian history. Defending champion Noble Ability (trained by Joe Stutzman of Campbellville) place third. Winners in the four race Nassagaweya series included Elmos Blaze (driven by Randy Waples of Moffat), Southwind Halite, The Firepan, and Stonebridge Storm (also driven by Waples.) This Saturday (September 25th) Mohawk hosts $120,000 Milton Stakes for female pacers.

MILTON DISTRICT HOSPITAL: Dr. Sandy Sharma begins his on-site obstetrics and gynecology practice at MDH on Oct. 4 at which time the obstetric unit will resume operation. Dr. Christopher Assad has also started a new Plastic Surgery practice in Milton this summer. Dr. Greg Jaroszynski, Orthopedic Surgeon, joined the medical staff serving both Milton and Oakville sites. A number of free Health Education seminars are scheduled. Watch for Mastering Stress on October 19th at the Ramada Inn, Oakville at 7p.m. Free registration by calling HHS at (905) 338-4147.

OCTOBER EVENTS! What a month! Watch for the the CABA Harvest Festival on October 2 & 3 and the annual craft show in Campbellville on Thanksgiving weekend. On October 14, forget the kitchen! Just set aside that Thursday evening for Community Night, the Kick Off Millennium Fundraiser, at Mohawk Raceway. Tickets are available through Councillors or Town hall at $40 including buffet, door prizes, and some of the finest racing in the world. Then loosen your belt and your wallet for the annual United Way Dinner Auction on Friday, October 15th at Rattlesnake Point. Tickets are $45 available through the United Way office.

MUSIC FESTIVAL: Plans continue as the popular Speedside Festival moves to its new location at Ebenezer United Church for four days of outstanding chamber music performances. The four day series will be featured October 21st - 24th. Tickets are available individually or as a series. Watch for more information, call Dr. Stanley Saunders at (519) 856-4849, or email cindy@in.on.ca for more information.
