

Aberfoyle's Indoor Antique Show a sure sign Spring is here!

Special to The Compass

The most popular regional spring antique event, "Aberfoyle's Indoor Antique Show", takes place Saturday March 31 and Sunday April 1 in the Puslinch Community Centre.

The show runs from 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. each day. Aberfoyle is located on Brock Rd. (Old hwy. 6) just south of Guelph. From the 401 (exit #299), take Brock Rd north 3 km to the Community Centre.

What makes this event so popular year after year? It could be the variety and quality of merchandise, the bright, spacious layout or the friendly, knowledgeable dealers.

Whatever the reason, this is a show that shouldn't be missed. Admission is just $3 per adult (children are free) for the entire weekend and parking is free.

The Aberfoyle indoor Antique Show is the perfect place to shop for rare, one of a kind, affordable antiques and collectibles in many categories.

From antiquarian books to fine china, Canadiana, table linens, costume and estate jewelry, Victoriana, early American and Canadian pressed glass, great furniture in pine, walnut, mahogany, oak and more, you will find it all at this show.

Dozens of antique clocks, primitive tools, sterling silver, cornflower, copper, brass and depression glass are all prominently displayed.

Presented by Dale's Hollow Antiques. For more information please phone (519)767-2094, fax (519)767-1105 or e-mail tbolger@sympatico.ca
