Arboretum Auxiliary offer Sunday afternoon walks

The Arboretum Auxiliary docents will be once again be offering a series of seasonal Sunday Afternoon Walks beginning on Sunday, June 3 from 2:00-3:30 p.m. Come out and enjoy a leisurely walk with your family and friends and experience the wonders of nature at The Arboretum, University of Guelph. Meet at the J.C. Nature Centre at The Arboretum at 2:00 p.m. If you have binoculars, please bring them on your walk - they're not just for bird-watching!

Sunday, June 3 - Late Spring

Discovery Tour

More creatures and plants are making themselves visible. Come and check them out!

Sunday, June 10 - Gosling Wildlife Gardens

Experience how to create a wildlife habitat in your own backyard. This type of gardening makes salads and furry friends at the same time!

Sunday, June 17 - Mosquitoes Bite This outing will include a trek through The Arboretum grounds in search of the elusive mosquito larvae in puddles and ponds.

Sunday, June 24 - Pond Life

This walk will be an exploration of bark - how it helps trees, how you can use it for tree identification and its importance to many wildlife species.

Sunday, July 1 - Early Summer Discovery

Come and learn about the history of our beautiful site and what its future holds.

Sunday, July 8 - Wilderness Detectives

Learn how to identify Arboretum inhabitants without actually hearing or seeing them. Come and find out how this is possible.

Sunday, July 15 - Gosling Wildlife Gardens

What wildlife is in the garden today? Come and see why this site is Canada's best demonstration of backyard wildlife gardens.

Sunday, July 22 - Old Growth Forest

How old is old? Discover how to identify an Old Growth Forest and learn of their importance as wildlife refuges in urban areas like Guelph.

Sunday, July 29 - The Nose Knows

Let your common scents take over. Experience nature from a different perspective and learn to trust your sense of smell.

Sunday Afternoon Walks are free with a suggested donation $3.00 per person. For more information, please call The Arboretum at (519) 824-4120 extension 2113.

After hours meeting

The Chamber of Commerce After Hours May meeting was hosted by Milton Heights Camp Grounds. Owner Francis Sweet (right) and Manager Jean Casarin (left) celebrated their 30th anniversary.
