Keeping the home fires burning

Glenda's Kitchen Kapers

by Glenda Denton

We enjoyed our trip out west this summer and thoroughly enjoyed attending Bert's cousin's 40th wedding anniversary and renewing our friendships with relatives. When Helen heard we were coming she promptly wrote back delighted and jokingly suggested we might consider coming a day or two early so I could help get the food ready. Just for fun we did that and now I'm going to share a couple of those recipes.

Marinated Onions

1 cup boiling water
1 cup vinegar
1 cup sugar
Onions (sliced)
1/2 cup sour cream
1/2 cup salad dressing
celery seed

Pour boiling water, vinegar and sugar over the sliced onions and marinate all day. Drain. Add sour cream and salad dressing. Sprinkle with celery seed. I think we did about 3 or 4 pounds of onions. We had a 4 liter ice cream tub of onions anyway. This was for a gathering of 40. I intend to use half the recipe for home use.

Fruit Pizza

Crust: 1 1/4 cup flour
1/3 cup brown sugar
3 tbsp icing sugar
2/3 cup softened margarine
Mix together until forms a ball. Pat into pizza pan and bake at 350 for 10-15 minutes. Cool.
Topping: 12 oz. cream cheese
1/2 cup sugar
1 tsp vanilla
Beat together. Spread over cooled crust. Arrange the fruits of your choice on the topping.

Glaze: 1/2 cup water
1/2 cup orange juice
2 tbsp lemon juice
1/4 cup white sugar
1 tbsp cornstarch

Cook until thick. Pour glaze over the fruit. Cool.

Chocolate Syrup (served over ice cream)

3/4 cup cocoa
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 tsp salt
1 cup hot water
1/2 cup corn syrup
1 tsp vanilla

Mix cocoa, sugar, salt in hot water. Add corn syrup. Boil until right consistency (Approx. 1 min.). Add vanilla. Cool and store in fridge. This also works well in chocolate milk.

I also heard a good joke. Those of you who know Bert know how he gives me a hard time about leftovers. Helen, by the way is a United Church Minister, and she and Reg got a kick out of this joke too.

A young minister sitting down to dinner was about to say Grace when he opened the casserole dish that his thrifty bride had prepared from all the refrigerator leftovers.

"I don't know," he said dubiously,
"but it seems I've blessed all this stuff before."

Enjoy life. This is not a dress rehearsal.

New and improved Brookville gas station ready to celebrate

by Donna Danielli

It's been a long haul for Jimmy and Rosa Lin but their PetroCanada Station on Guelph Line in Brookville is once again open for business.

Last November, the Region of Halton installed traffic lights at the corner of Guelph Line and Fifteenth Sideroad, where the PetroCanada Station and Clover Leaf Store (owned for the last 11 years by Mr. and Mrs. Lin) is located. The traffic lights cut down on the available parking space at this corner and for his customer's safety Mr. Lin decided to tear down the gas station and store and rebuild them further back from the road.

The store has been re-opened for business for the last few months but the Lin's are now pleased to welcome customers to their newly opened Full and Self Service PetroCanada Station. The gas station is open Monday to Friday from 5:30 a.m. to 11 p.m. and on weekends it is open from 6:30 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Jimmy and Rosa Lin would like to invite everyone to a Grand Opening celebration on September 15. Join the Lin's for free hot dogs and draws.

"Everyone come and enjoy the party" invites Mr. Lin. "I love this area. Campbellville people help each other and we love them. We're happy we moved here from Toronto."

The North Halton Compass would like to congratulate Jimmy and Rosa Lin on their Grand Opening and encourage our readers to stop by on September 15 for this happy occasion.
