the communities it serves in the Region of Halton and the County of the Eramosa Mutual Fire Insurance Company, The Puslinch Mutual Fire Insurance Company. The Puslinch Mutual was first of the three mutual companies to be established. Farmers was established in 1890, although another mutual company had been organized in Upper Canada in the mid-to-late 1800's as a result of the need to insure against such loss "whether the same shall appear by accident, fire, insurrection or invasion." Soon mutual companies were insuring townships and villages from loss for modest rates but also assumed financial responsibility for the reconstruction of the communities. The amalgamation of the three mutuals was formally discussed in June, 1968 at a meeting in Eramosa.
