she was employed at Eatons Department Store, Bob said he figured with a slogan like "Goods Satisfactory or Money Refunded" he couldn't lose. One time Bob was helping a man pour a cement floor using a rate of 15 to one. Bob suggested that maybe they should try a batch with no cement at all and very nearly lost his job. Bob and Mae Pewtress were well known in the community of Hornby. Young girls of the 1940s era remember Mae's beautiful wide-brimmed hats. Mae was also president of the Hornby Women's Institute from 1920 to 1921. Their son Medforth married Harriett (Hattie) Peacock and farmed on Thompson Road below the arena. Med also worked on the County road crew. They later lived on Tremaine Road south of Main St. West where they operated a seed cleaning business. Their daughter Margaret lives in Sarnia, Kathleen at Hepworth and Susan in Milton. Bob and Mae's son Kenneth married Mary Ann Gregory and farmed Lot 12 until 1969 when they sold the Pewtress farm. In 1972 Kenneth and Mary Ann moved to Wingham and bought a farm across the road from their son Bruce. They also have two daughters: Carolyn who resides in Orilla and Judy who now lives in Port Hope.
