The Grand Opening of the IGA store in Acton took place Thursday, November 29, 2001, with representatives from Sobey's Head Office, Town of Halton Hills Mayor Kathy Gastle, the Manes family and many others.

"I'm just so excited and pleased," said Mayor Gastle. "Acton is going to benefit greatly from this... congratulations to the Manes family."

The Mayor and Mike Manes then cut the ribbon to declare the store officially open. The parking lot was full of shoppers ready to experience the new facility, which was seasonally decorated for winter and Christmas.

The day was a wonderful success, as evidenced by the beaming faces of the Manes family and staff, and the bright, fresh and clean store. Early customers were treated to carnations and a mini prize wheel at the door, where they could spin and win a prize, from mugs to calendars.

OEF bursaries available to young horse enthusiasts

Following two successful years of distributing funds to deserving youths, the Ontario Equestrian Federation's Youth Bursary Program will, once again, be providing $1000 bursaries to each of five exceptional high school students.

The OEF is seeking applications from dedicated youths who can only afford the odd lesson or who perhaps work at stables chores in exchange for lessons, and wish to expand on their equestrian opportunities and education. Students should be willing to commit to a training program consisting of short-term and long-term goals developed by the youth together with their coach.

Junior OEF members who wish to participate in this exciting program should contact Susan Thompson, Education Coordinator, at 416-426-7234, toll free at 1-877-441-7112 or email education@horse.on.ca for further details and an application form. Application deadline is March 1.
