A Celebration of Student Excellence

Brookville Public School: Jill Martin, Grade 8

Over the past nine years, Jill has consistently demonstrated excellent learning skills, responsibility and a true cooperative spirit in all she does. She assumed the role of Prime Minister of Brookville's student forum, organizing spirit days, dances, assemblies, and special school treat days this year and has done an outstanding job. Academically, Jill is a solid Level 4 student in all subjects, and she effectively manages her time. Jill is well respected by her peers, is very responsible, well organized and a joy to work with. Congratulations, Jill!

Glen Williams Public School: Sarah Dunlop, Grade 5

Sarah was selected to represent Glen Williams School as she has demonstrated outstanding leadership and citizenship qualities. As well as having strong academic skills, Sarah is involved in extra-curricular activities including the bus patrol and the volleyball team. Outside the school, Sarah enjoys soccer and tennis. She is a very reliable and responsible student and an excellent role model for younger students. We are pleased and proud to have Sarah represent Glen Williams.

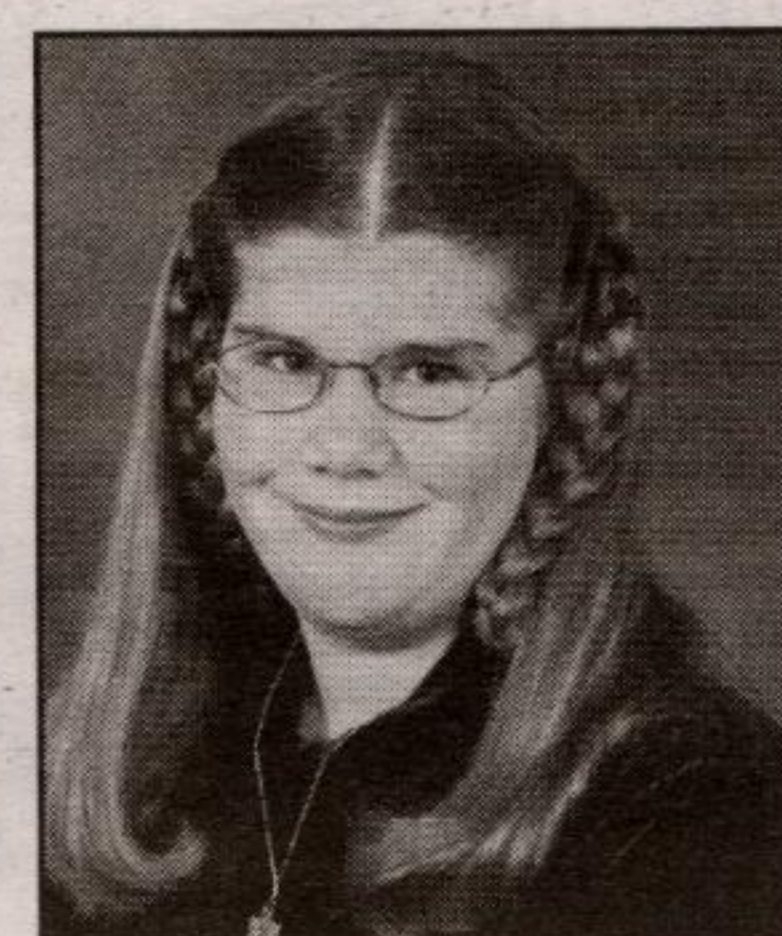

Limehouse Public School: Tara Bishop, Grade 5

An excellent student with tremendous school spirit, Tara is an active and visible assistant to fellow students and staff at Limehouse Public School. Tara is also an active participant within the broader community, participating in Guides, the Georgetown Children's Chorus and as a Georgetown Rep Soccer player. Congratulations, Tara!

P.W. Merry: Shelynn Gervais, Grade 6

Shelynn Gervais excels not only academically, but in all aspects of the school community. She is a great helper in the classroom and around the school, and is also a bus buddy for kindergarten children. Shelynn demonstrates maturity and pride in all her work. She is cooperative and pleasant and an excellent role model for her peers.

Pineview Public School: Cassandra Patterson, Grade 5

Cassandra truly demonstrates Pineview's motto, "Caring and Sharing for Lifelong Learning". Her diligent work habits, positive outlook and attitude of service to others are consistently evident. Congratulations, Cassandra!

Stewarttown Senior Public School: David Cavasin, Grade 8

David's exemplary work ethic enables him to achieve every bit of his potential academically, as well as participating actively in all areas of school life. Besides being the class rep on Student Council for two years, David has enjoyed being on the volleyball, basketball and cross-country teams, and in the school choir during all three years at Stewarttown. He takes guitar lessons and is a third year member of the Westside Volleyball Club and to top it off, David is an avid fan of the Beatles and the Guess Who! David is an outstanding representative of all Stewarttown students, and truly a Student of Excellence.
