

CAMPBELLVILLE COUNTRY NEWS

Prepared by Sophie Cheney

Next meeting will be held on Wednesday, September 11, 7 p.m. at the Bruce Trail Eatery.

CABA MINUTES

AUG. 14, 2002

ATTENDANCE: Cindy Lunau, Reid Kennedy, 8 members

This evening's meeting was held at the Bruce Trail Eatery.

TODS SIGN

It has been recommended that CABA apply through the Gateway Committee. The Town of Milton staff has suggested that the Town may be willing to fund the yearly maintenance as part of the Gateway signage program. The Council will review and prioritize the program.

WEBSITE

Andrew Siltala has been working on developing a new webpage for the Town of Milton. Three pages are to be set aside for The Chamber of Commerce, Milton BIA and CABA, one page each. The CABA section could list services available in Campbellville, and could provide links to websites of local businesses.

Rick and Kathy will arrange to meet with Andrew to coordinate the arrangements. Cindy suggested following the theme of "Experience the Village."

ADVERTISING

Escarpment Country Chamber will put in a full page ad in the Oct. issue of Curious Daytripper. CABA could put in a joint ad ($90 vs. reg. cost of $125). While too late for the Harvest Festival, a general ad is to be considered or possibly Christmas in Campbellville.

NEW BUSINESS:

OCTOBER HARVEST FESTIVAL

John & Patti Was of International Imports will be opening seven days per week from Oct. to Dec. to attract more Campbellville residents. Thursday or Friday night could have a tour of the village to kick things off. Members are asked for their ideas to help formulate a plan. It was suggested that CABA could combine advertising for the Harvest Festival and International's new hours. Village hours were discussed; San Antonio Restaurant has been a very strong draw and customers are often looking around for other activities at night.

NEW DOLL GALLERY COMING

Attendees were treated to a preview of the Irresistible Dolls Gallery to open soon. Lisa Lister Stoodley, the owner, is currently looking for a suitable permanent location. The Gallery will feature dolls from Mme. Alexander, Marie Osmond, Robert Toner and others. CABA wishes to extend our very best wishes for success to Lisa.

Breaking new ground at MMCR

After four long years of fundraising, Milton Millennium Community Residence broke ground for their new 77 suite assisted living complex, Martindale Gardens. On hand to share in the festivities were MMCR Chairman Karl Reichart, Mayor Gord Krantz, Regional Chairman Joyce Savoline, MP Julien Reed and MPP Ted Chudleigh's assistant Terry Jackson.
