Look and feel your best at The Village Beauty Boutique

By DEBORAH QUAILE

The Village Beauty Boutique has been making some important changes around the shop - ones that will help Rockwood and area residents look and feel their best. Kass Weideman and Marilyn Sorensen-Graham are pleased to welcome Grazyna Klos to the shop, a hairstylist with over 20 years of experience. Ms. Klos offers foil highlights and will be working full time at Village Beauty Boutique in January 2003.

Kass Weideman is well known in the area for renovating the Main Street building and creating a full service salon. She specializes in textured perms and new hair techniques, and is introducing a new line of Soma hair care products that are biodegradable, UV protecting, and non-animal tested. She does full hair care for women, men and children, as well as special "up do's" for important social engagements.

Marilyn Sorensen-Graham, the location's expert in esthetics, aromatherapy, and reflexology, custom-blends oils for full body massage, recognizing that "different oils are better for different things."

The oils can aid physical complaints such as muscle aches and pains, arthritis, headaches, skin conditions, stress and much more. Reflexology works with thumb pressure on areas of the feet to disperse "blocking" in the body, a procedure that is not a cure but can help give relief to certain discomforts.

She also pampers her clients with facials, body treatments, pedicures, manicures, paraffin treatments, waxing, makeup applications and colour analysis. She's pleased to announce that Village Beauty Boutique is also launching a Belgian skin care line named Nelly De Vuyst, a selection that is exclusive to salons.

"They have some fabulous facials... your skin is baby soft when finished. This is a skin care line that really works!" Ms. Sorensen-Graham remarks. "We have a relaxed, comfortable salon - we don't rush people. There's soft music, gentle colours - we try to create a bit of an escape for busy people, where they can get all services done under one roof."

Village Beauty Boutique hair salon will be open six days a week beginning in January, Monday to Saturday, and the spa from Tuesday to Saturday.

Gift certificates are available for people looking for something different for the holiday season.

Nativity pageant lets visitors experience that first Christmas

Special to The Compass

While Christian churches throughout the world will be re-enacting the birth of Jesus this Christmas season, 17 Milton and area churches have banded together to create a Nativity pageant unlike most others. Not only does this pageant take place out of doors but it also allows the visitor to get involved in the production.

"As participants walk from scene to scene, they will experience what it was like to travel the road to Bethlehem, to be counted in the census two thousand years ago," comments Heather Auger, treasurer of Milton's Christian Churches where a real baby will play the part of Jesus. And along the way, they'll meet lots of real animals including llamas, donkeys, sheep being tended by a real sheep dog, goats, cows and even a camel."

As Andrea Rowbottom, creator and director of the pageant explains, "We want this production to be as realistic as possible. Country Heritage Park provides the ideal setting with its heritage buildings, walking paths and farm animals. Together with the wonderful work our costume and prop people have done, we hope visitors will truly experience the real meaning of Christmas."

The pageant has become a major community event involving not only town churches but also congregations from Halton Hills to Brookville. More than 300 volunteers have been working for months to put the production together and the cast now numbers over 80.

Adds Henry Hildebrand, who is involved with fundraising for the project, "We are amazed by the enthusiastic support we have received. Local farmers are providing additional animals for the various scenes, local businesses and individuals are providing goods and services as well as financial support. Hillcrest United Church on Trafalgar Road is promoting the pageant through their float in the Milton Santa Claus parade while New Life Church is providing a bus service between town and Country Heritage Park. Everyone is chipping in to help make this project a huge success."

On the Way to Bethlehem runs from December 6 through December 9 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at Country Heritage Park, 8560 Tremaine Road, Milton (off 401, just west of Milton). Everyone is welcome. There is no admission charge and no tickets are required. A free-will offering will be accepted.

For local residents wishing to use the bus service, its first stop will be at the Ontario Street entrance to Milton Mall at 6:30 p.m. The bus will then proceed to 100 Millside Drive and then make its final stop at St. Paul's United Church, before heading to Country Heritage Park. Wagon rides will be available at the Park for those who are unable to walk the pageant route.

For more information, contact: Dr. Andrea Rowbottom, Pageant Director - 905 875 0839 or Reg Cressman, General Manager, Country Heritage Park - 905 878 8151.

It's time for tractors to shine!

By: DEBORAH QUAILE

Rockwood's Tenth Annual Farmers' Parade of Lights is running through the streets on Thursday, December 12 at 7 p.m. Entries are by invitation only, and there is no advertising in conjunction with the event - it's just for the pure pleasure of participants and audience.

Spend a cheery night under snow or stars and enjoy combines, spreaders, sprayers, tractors, trailers, and more covered in Christmas baubles and bows, tinsel and garland, and of course, an amazing array of lights.

The parade route will begin at Main Street North (County Rd. 27), turn right on Alma Street and continue west to 4th Line, where vehicles will turn north and return to their starting point. Santa's route will be closed to through traffic from 6:45 p.m. until the end of the parade. There is parking throughout the town and on 4th Line (look for parking signs north of the railroad tracks). Rockwood's farming community and the March Blahs group has been working hard to create some spectacular new entries this year that you won't want to miss!
