

Donna Danielli's Just Kidding

It may have seemed as though summer would never arrive, but finally it's here. Along with the warm weather, longer days and picnics, summer brings with it a whole host of great family fun events.

Country Heritage Park offers kids of all ages the chance to make butter and ice cream during its Dairy Days on July 12 and 13. As well, on July 26 and 27, kids are invited to get up close and personal at Farm Animal Days, when the park offers real live farm animals, as well as a little farmer's play farm with wooden farm toys. Both of these events run from noon to 5:00 p.m., and all other park activities will be available for the cost of admission. Admission is $7 for adults, $6 for seniors aged 55 and older, $4 for 6 to 12-year-olds, and free for those under age 6. For more information, please call 905-878-8151 or 1-888-307-3276.

Kelso Beach is the place to be this month for aspiring lifeguards or those who just want to improve their skills. The Junior Lifeguard Club runs Tuesdays from July 8 to August 26. This club is for 10 to 15-year-olds and allows participants to develop their first aid, resuscitation and rescue skills. It will also prepare participants for advanced aquatic leadership training. This runs from 9:00 to 10:30 a.m. at a cost of $100. More information is available by calling 905-878-5011.

Take time to celebrate with the Summer Folk and Craft Festival at Mountsberg Conservation Area on July 12 and 13. Enjoy this celebration of the passing of the summer solstice with music, dancing, crafts and outdoor fun. A craft and artisan fair will be brought together with storytelling, guided nature hikes, craft sessions, a play barn and birds of prey demonstrations. This runs from 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. both days, and regular admission prices for the conservation area apply. To find out more, please call 905-854-2276.

The Ontario Renaissance Festival will open its doors on July 19. The eighth season of this fair runs weekends and holiday Mondays throughout the summer. Enjoy performers, craft shops, food purveyors and games all set in 16th century Tudor England. Admission fees are $16.95 for adults, $15.50 for seniors over the age of 62 and $8.95 for kids aged 7 to 15. To find out more, please call 1-800-734-3779 or 905-878-6948.
