TAYLOR, Dennis James

Passed away unexpectedly at the age of 67, due to complications following surgery, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Hamilton. Dennis leaves behind Anne, his wife of 40 years residing in Campbellville, his sister Iris, brother-in-law Ted, four nieces and nine grand-nieces and nephews residing in England. Dennis started his working career as a mechanical engineer, and in mid-life made the switch to horse farmer at their Campbellville farm, an occupation which allowed him to indulge his love of animals. Dennis was an active volunteer for most of his life in activities ranging from animal welfare, therapeutic riding, professional and civic committees. He was well known in social circles for his quick wit and repertoire of jokes. At his request there was no funeral. Donations in his memory may be directed to the Midland SPCA 15979-Box 48, Midland, Ontario, L4R 4K3. Rest in peace Dennis, you will be missed. Arrangements through the J. Scott Early Funeral Home, Milton.
