

A cappella second in Halifax competitions

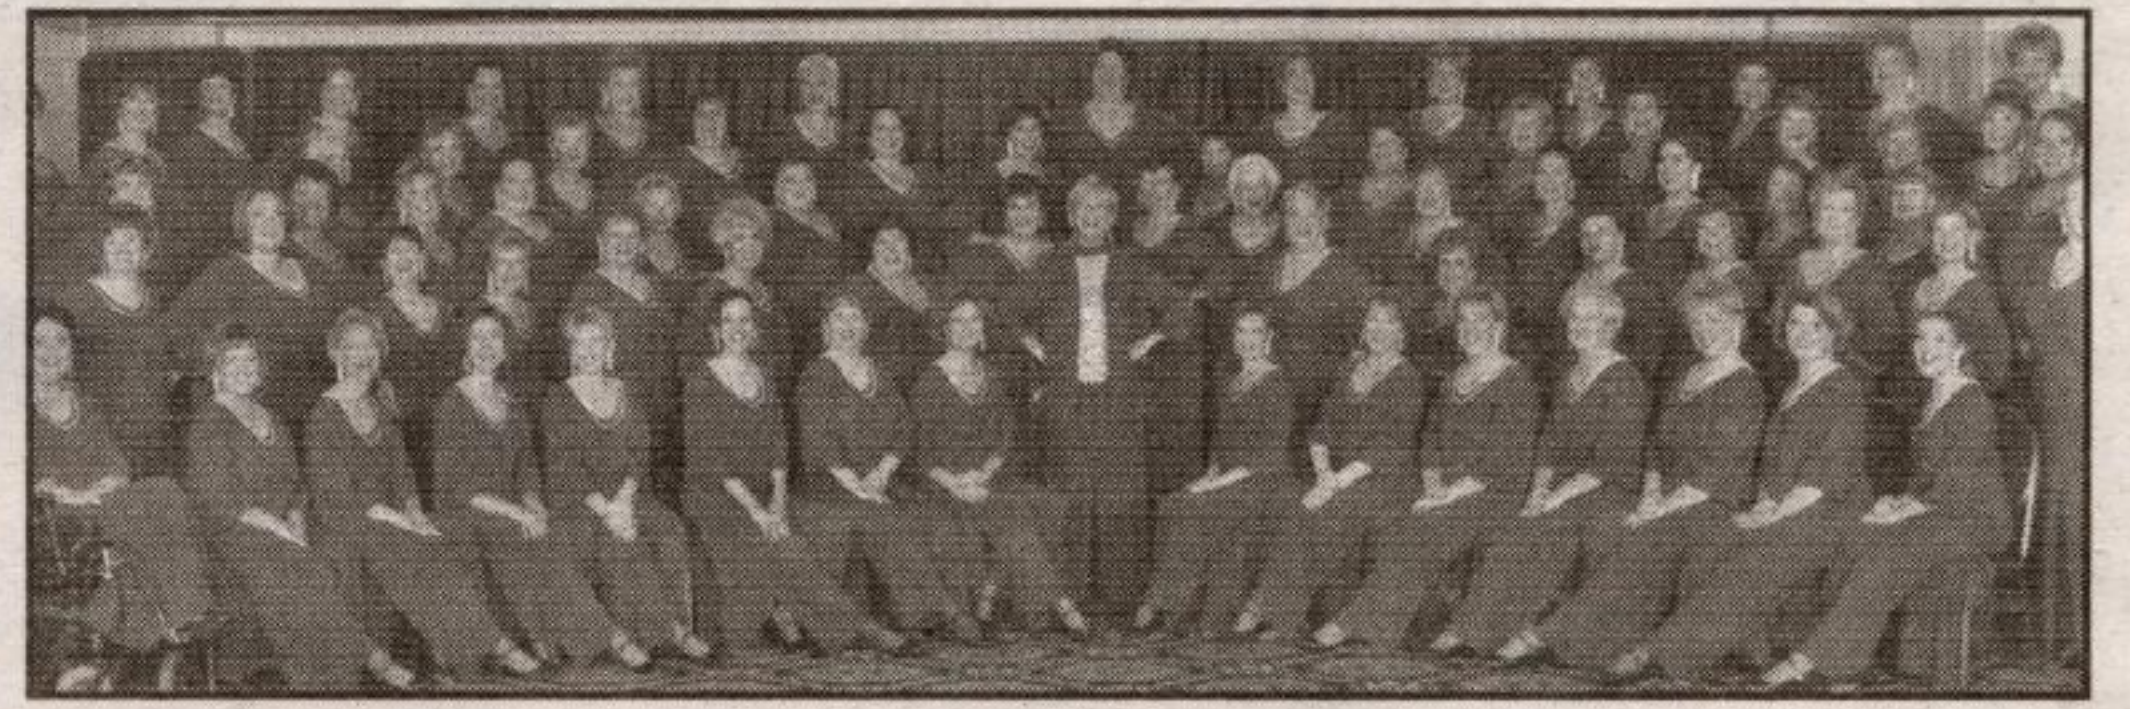

BY KAREN BOOTHROYD

A Cappella Showcase is a four-part harmony women's chorus based in Milton. They are part of Harmony Inc., an international women's barbershop singing organization with over 80 members. A Cappella Showcase is the highest scoring Canadian chorus and has won gold in its area competitions for three years running. Their last gold medal entitled them to compete in Halifax, Nova Scotia, on November 15 at an international contest where they placed second for the second year in a row.

According to director Judy Comeau, as well as being successful competitors, "A Cappella Showcase also does exciting performances in the area for events such as conventions and community functions. Primarily though, this is an educational singing organization and a marvelous opportunity for women to learn to sing and perform." Ms. Comeau underlines the fact that being able to read music or have prior singing experience is not essential. Their Open House Christmas Sing runs until December 16 at St. Volodymyr's Ukrainian Cultural Centre, Oakville, on the south side of Dundas at Fourth Line. The singing starts at 7:30. For membership and other information please call Cathy Evanoff at 905-278-1222.
