4-H Go for Gold
 The Halton 4H Club played host to the Region Go For the Gold Competition on Saturday, August 14. The competition tested member's skills and knowledge in over 60 different 4H project areas from livestock, crops and machinery to life skills, recreation, food and nutrition. Halton's team (left to right) of Amy Winters, Becky Parker, Sarah Breckon, Scott Martin, and (seated left to right) Tanya Woda and Suzanne Thibodeau played well and earned a place in the final championship game where they were defeated by the Haldimand 4H team. The Compass congratulates the Halton 4H Go For the Gold team for all of their hard work.
