

Joyce Savoline elected to AMO board

At the 105th Annual Conference of the Association of Municipalities of Ontario (AMO), Joyce Savoline, Chairman, Region of Halton was elected to the AMO Board of Directors. As members of the Board and the Regional and Single Tier Caucus, Joyce will help set policy for the Association and serve as a key municipal leader in the Province.

"I am pleased to announce that Joyce has joined the 2004-2005 Board team," said AMO President, Roger Anderson. "AMO looks forward to building on our positive relationship with the federal governments, both of which have recognized that the municipal order of government is essential to building strong and sustainable communities. AMO and Ontario's municipal sector will benefit from the expertise and dedication that the people like Joyce will bring to our Board."
