Ribbon Cutting at opening of new Milton Transit Service

Milton Mayor Gord Krantz (left) gets ready to cut the ribbon to launch Milton's new transit service on August 31. Mayor Krantz was joined at the ceremonies by Oakville Deputy Mayor Ralph Robinson and Heide Schlegl, coordinator of traffic and transit for the Town of Milton. Pictured with them is 9-year-old Andrew Taylor of Ballinfad, who attended the ceremonies.

Patricia Wark, the supervisor for Milton Transit, sits down behind the controls of one of Milton's newest buses, the number 3305. It's Patricia's job to assist the drivers, whether it's notifying them if a Go train is late or contacting maintenance if a bus breaks down. The Town of Milton recently launched a new transit service that includes three additional bus routes.
