

Sports Celebrity Dinner

Win dinner with the stars, compliments of the Compass

By DONNA DANIELLI

The Milton Chamber of Commerce will once again be hosting the ever popular Sports Celebrity Dinner in support of its scholarship campaign. Headliners for the January 18 event include former Toronto Maple Leafs and Hockey Hall of Famer Darryl Sittler and Lanny McDonald, along with 2003 Canadian Champion Harness Driver Chris Christoforou, 2004 CASCAR National Champion Don Thomson Jr. and CITY TV Sportscaster and former Maple Leaf Jim McKenny. More celebrity attendees are expected to be announced soon.

Tickets for the event are available through the Chamber of Commerce office, but the Halton Compass also has one pair of tickets available for a special kid who wants to take his or her parent to the dinner. This contest is open to Halton youth aged sixteen and under. To enter, submit an essay to the Compass office saying why you think you or your parent deserves to have dinner with a celebrity. Essays should be 100 words or less, and creativity is encouraged. Entries can be sent to: The Halton Compass, 35 Crawford Crescent, Campbellville, Ontario, L0P 1B0.

Contest deadline is December 31, 2004 and winners will be announced early in January. Entries can also be dropped off at Microplay on Main Street.

Prize includes two tickets to the event and seating at the Halton Compass table. As the Platinum sponsor of the Sports Celebrity dinner, the Halton Compass table is guaranteed to have one of the celebrities seated with them. Just think, you and your parent could be seated at a table with a former Maple Leaf (hey, maybe they know when the strike will end!).

The Sports Celebrity Dinner will take place on Tuesday, January 18 at the Glencairn Golf Club. Tickets are $125.00 plus G.S.T. for those not lucky enough to win, and you'd better hurry, this event sells out quickly. What better Christmas gift is there for the sports fan in your life than an autograph session, followed by dinner, an auction and keynote address from Lanny MacDonald. Tickets fit perfectly into almost any stocking! Why not call the Milton Chamber of Commerce at 905-878-0581 to book your tickets today. Remember, Darryl and Lanny are waiting for you.
