

Milton's Santa Claus Parade 2004

PHOTOS BY ANN KORNUA

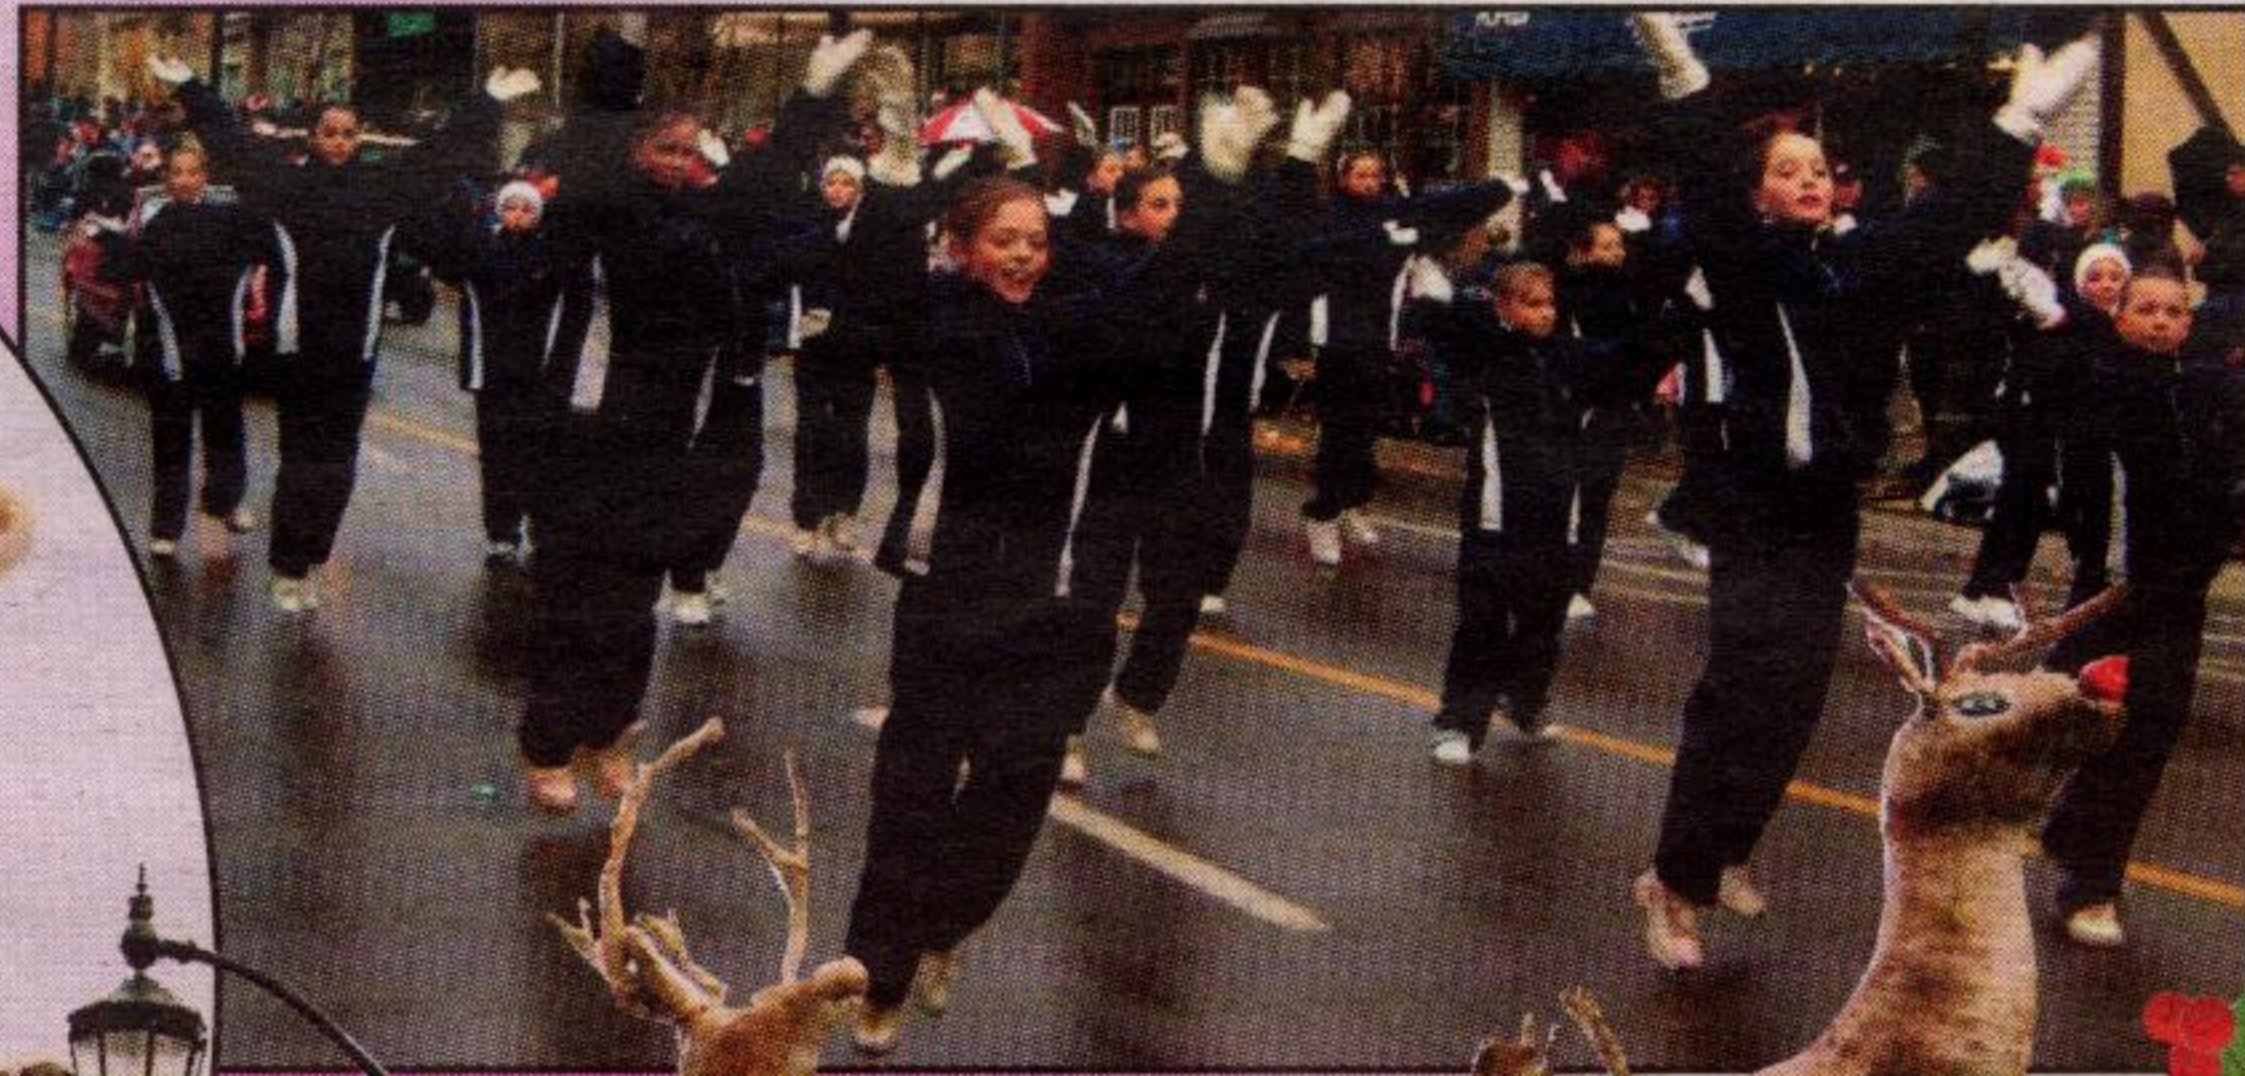

It rained, it snowed, it hailed and the wind blew but that didn't douse the spirit of those lined up to catch a glimpse of Santa coming down Main Street last Sunday. The Milton Santa Claus Parade roared down the roads of Milton in high spirits and cheer despite cold weather conditions and the occasional rain drizzle. Bundled up in blankets and snow jackets, children and their families were entertained by the colourful floats, marching bands, clowns, dancers, kazoo bands and shiny fire trucks Every year the Milton Santa Claus Parade gets bigger and better.

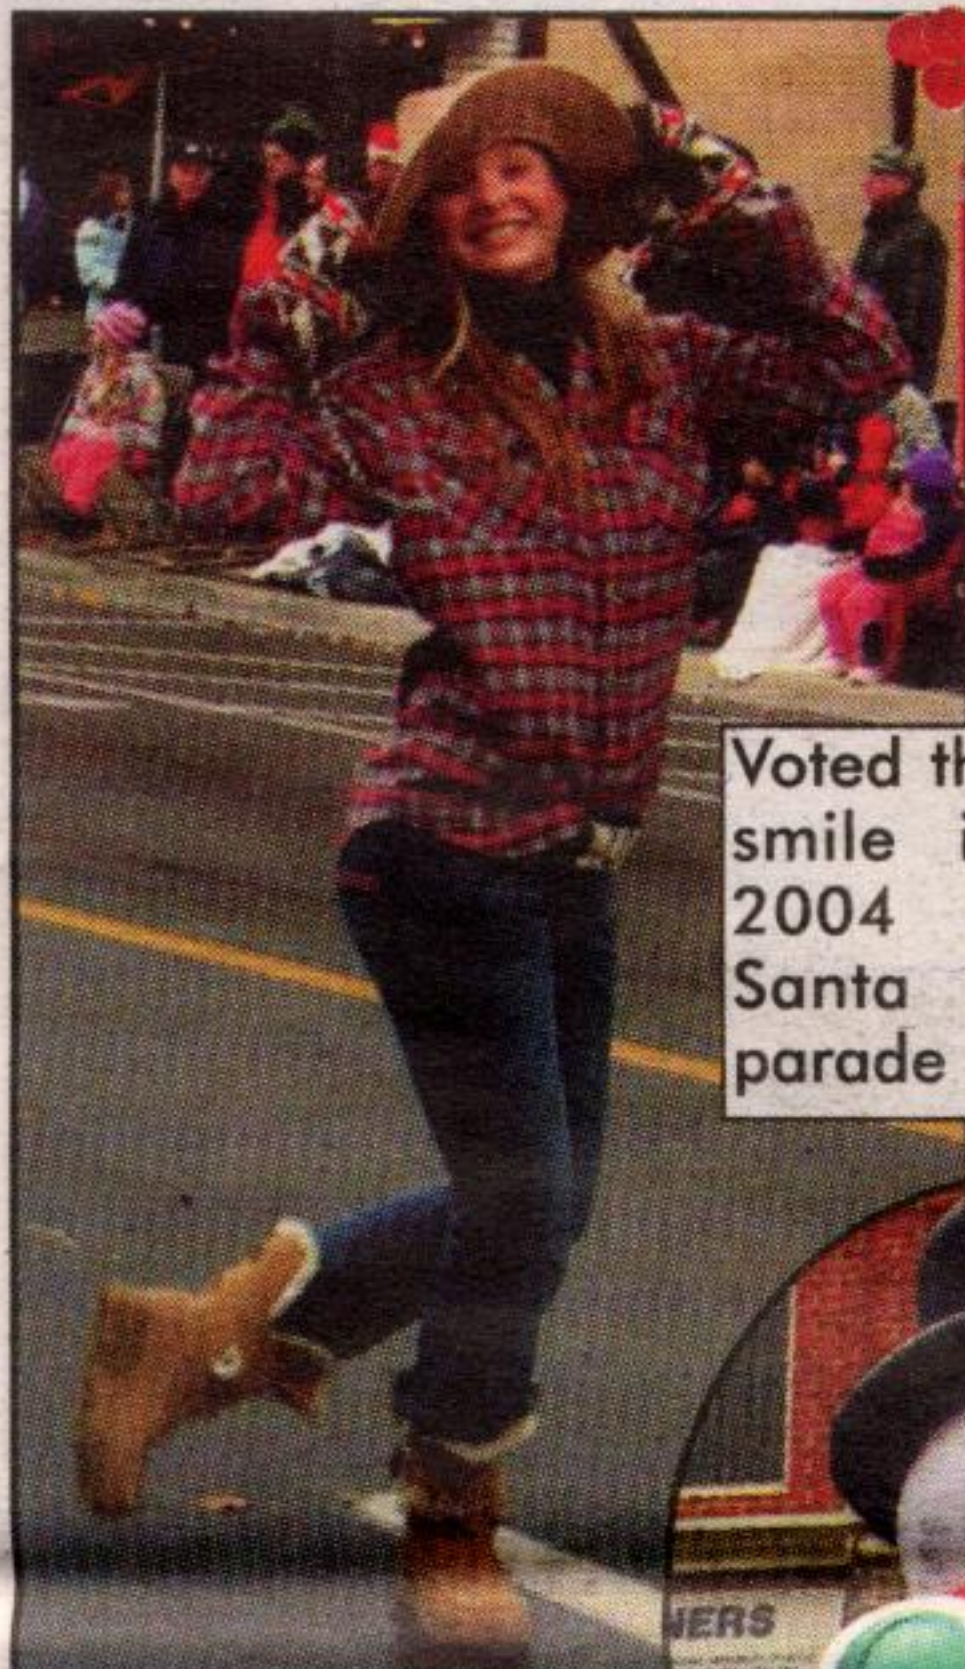

A Peel Shriner zips along in his mini go cart

The man everyone came to see, Santa Claus arrived with all his reindeers!

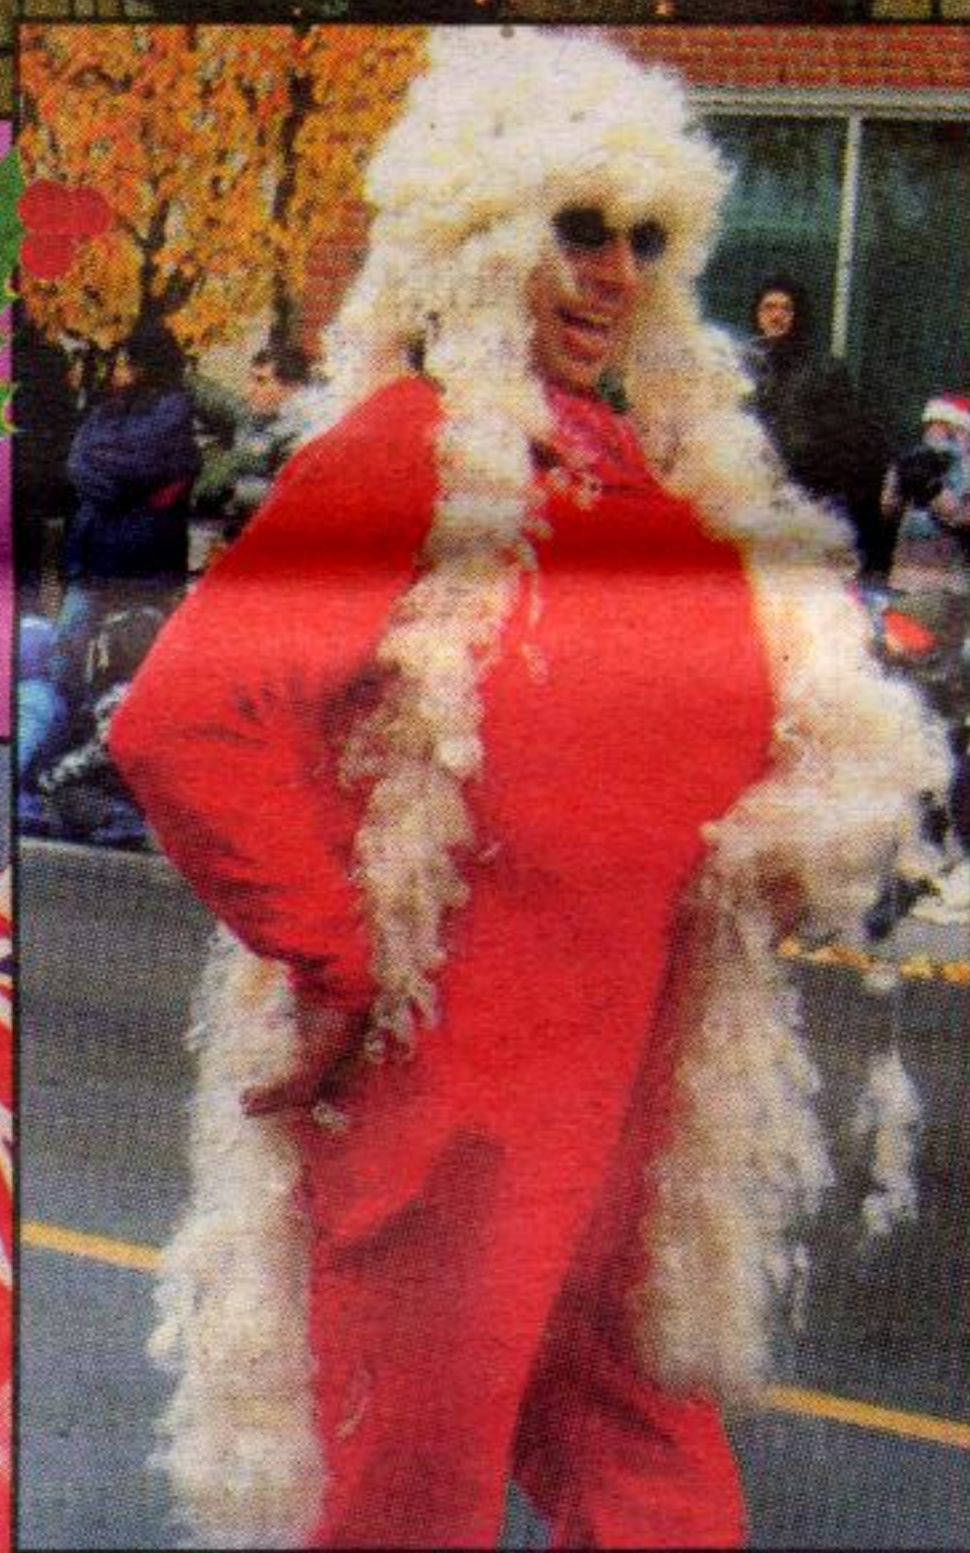

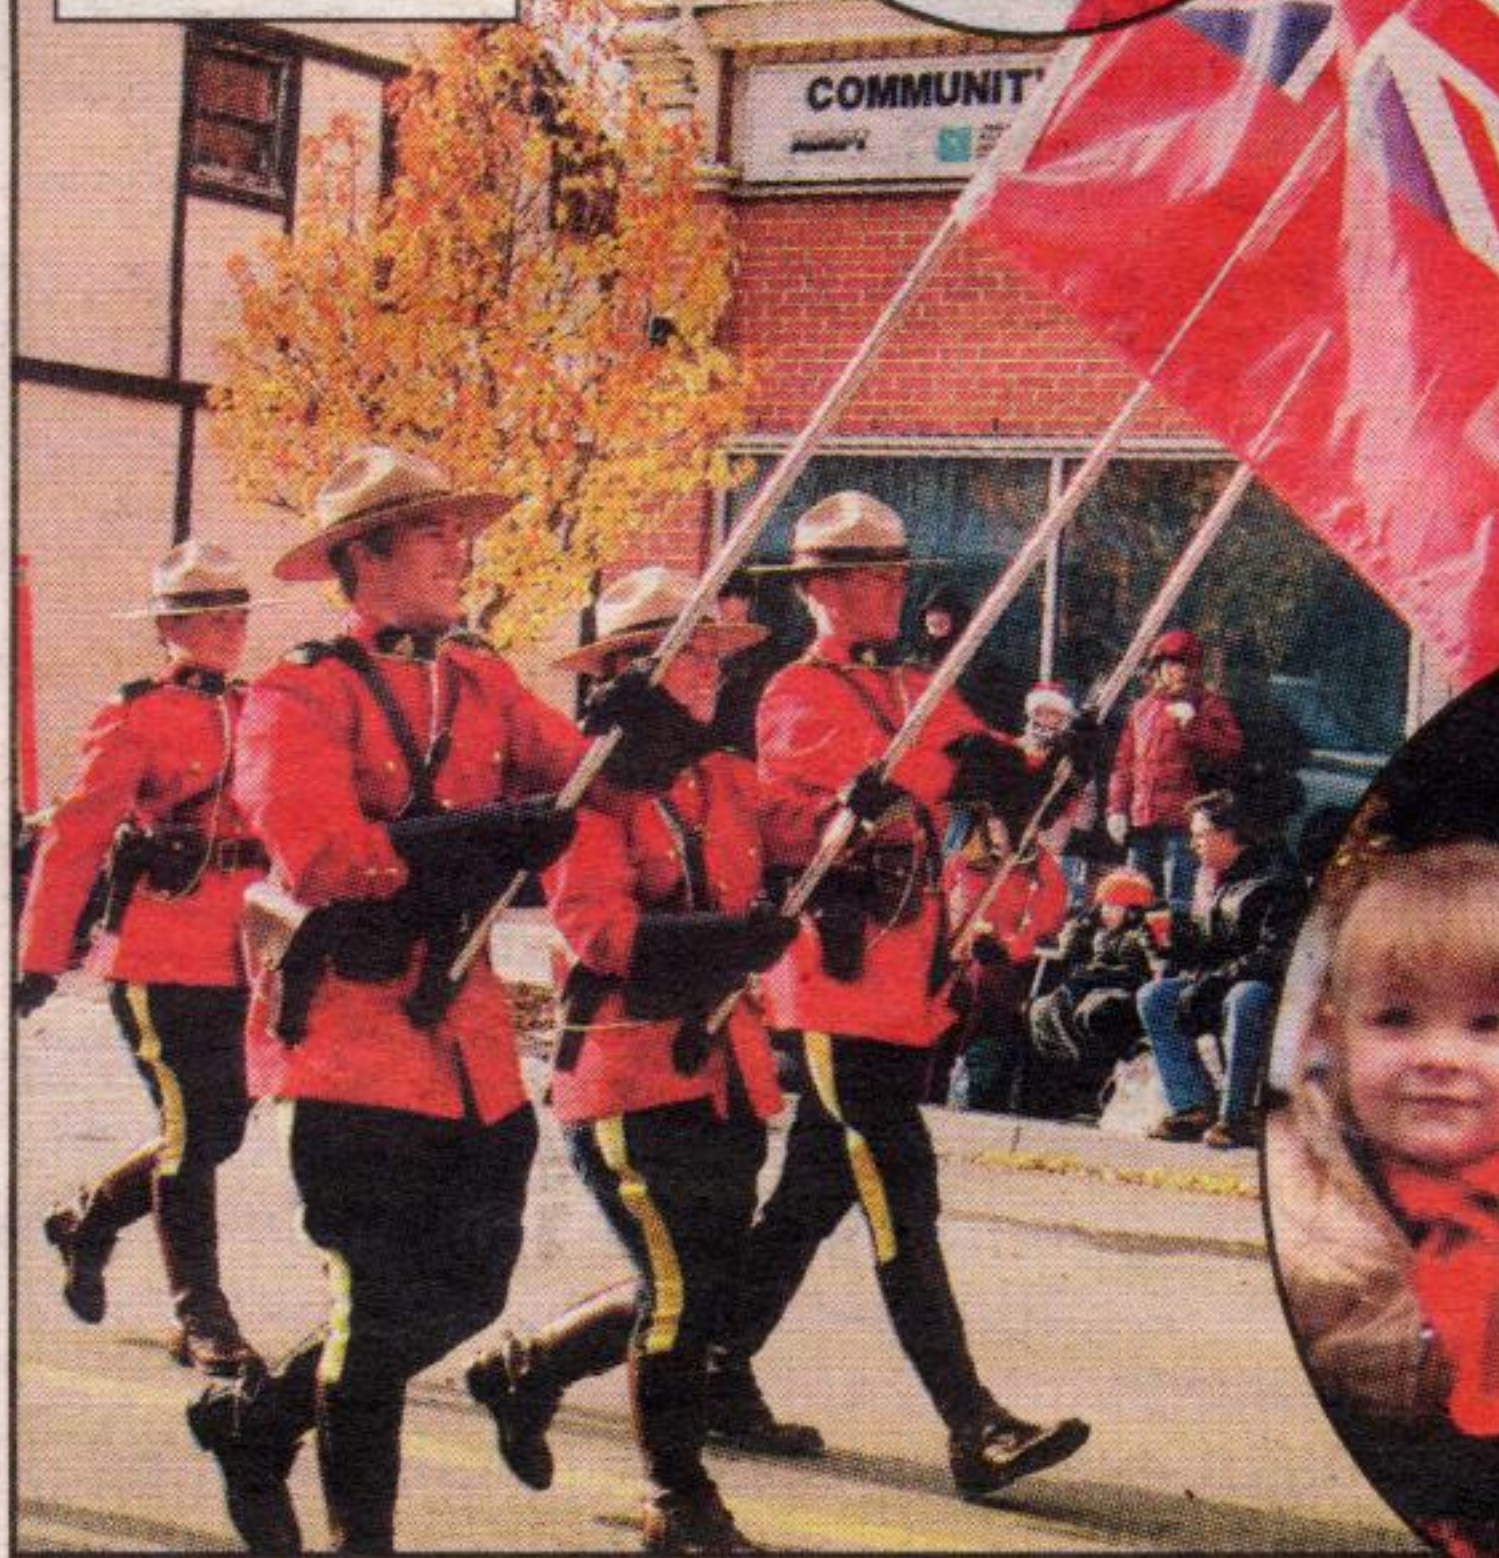

The Ronda Copeland School of Dance performers leap up

Voted the best smile in the 2004 Milton Santa Claus parade

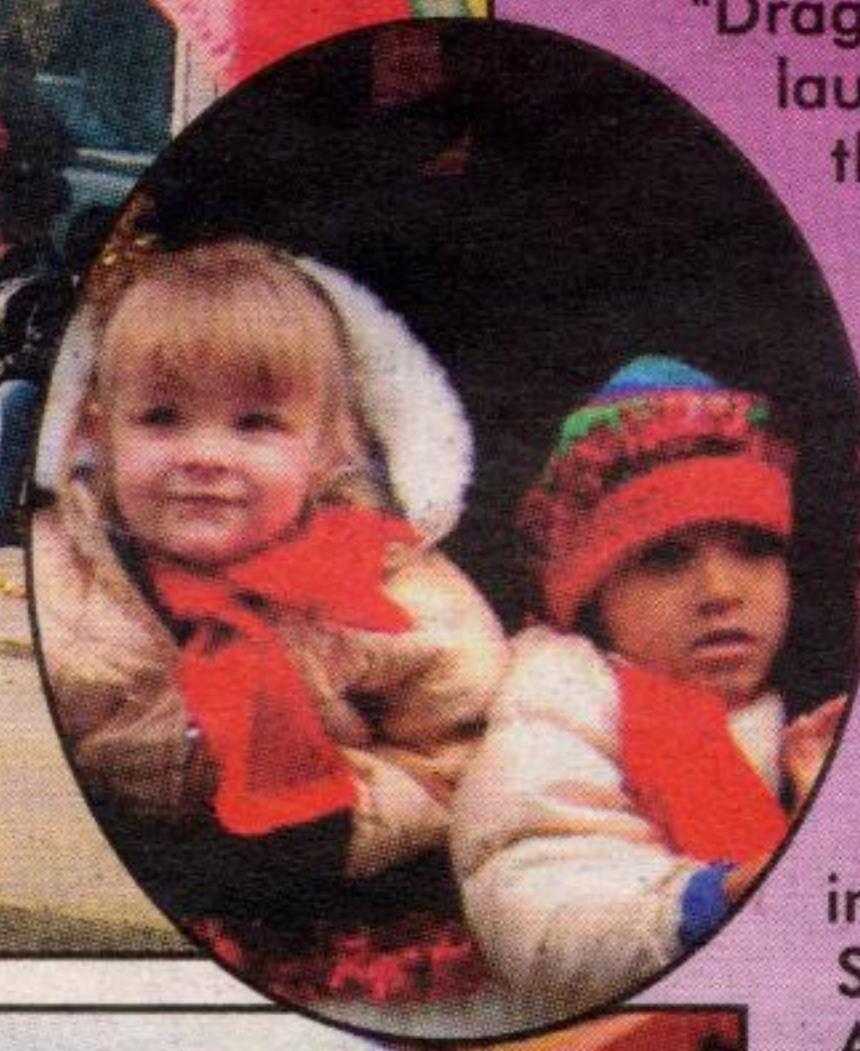

The opening of the parade with the RCMP

"Dragging" out laughs, one of the bravest souls in the parade

The Town Crier shouts out Christmas greetings from the miniature cut-out of Milton float

Good little children waving from the Salvation Army van

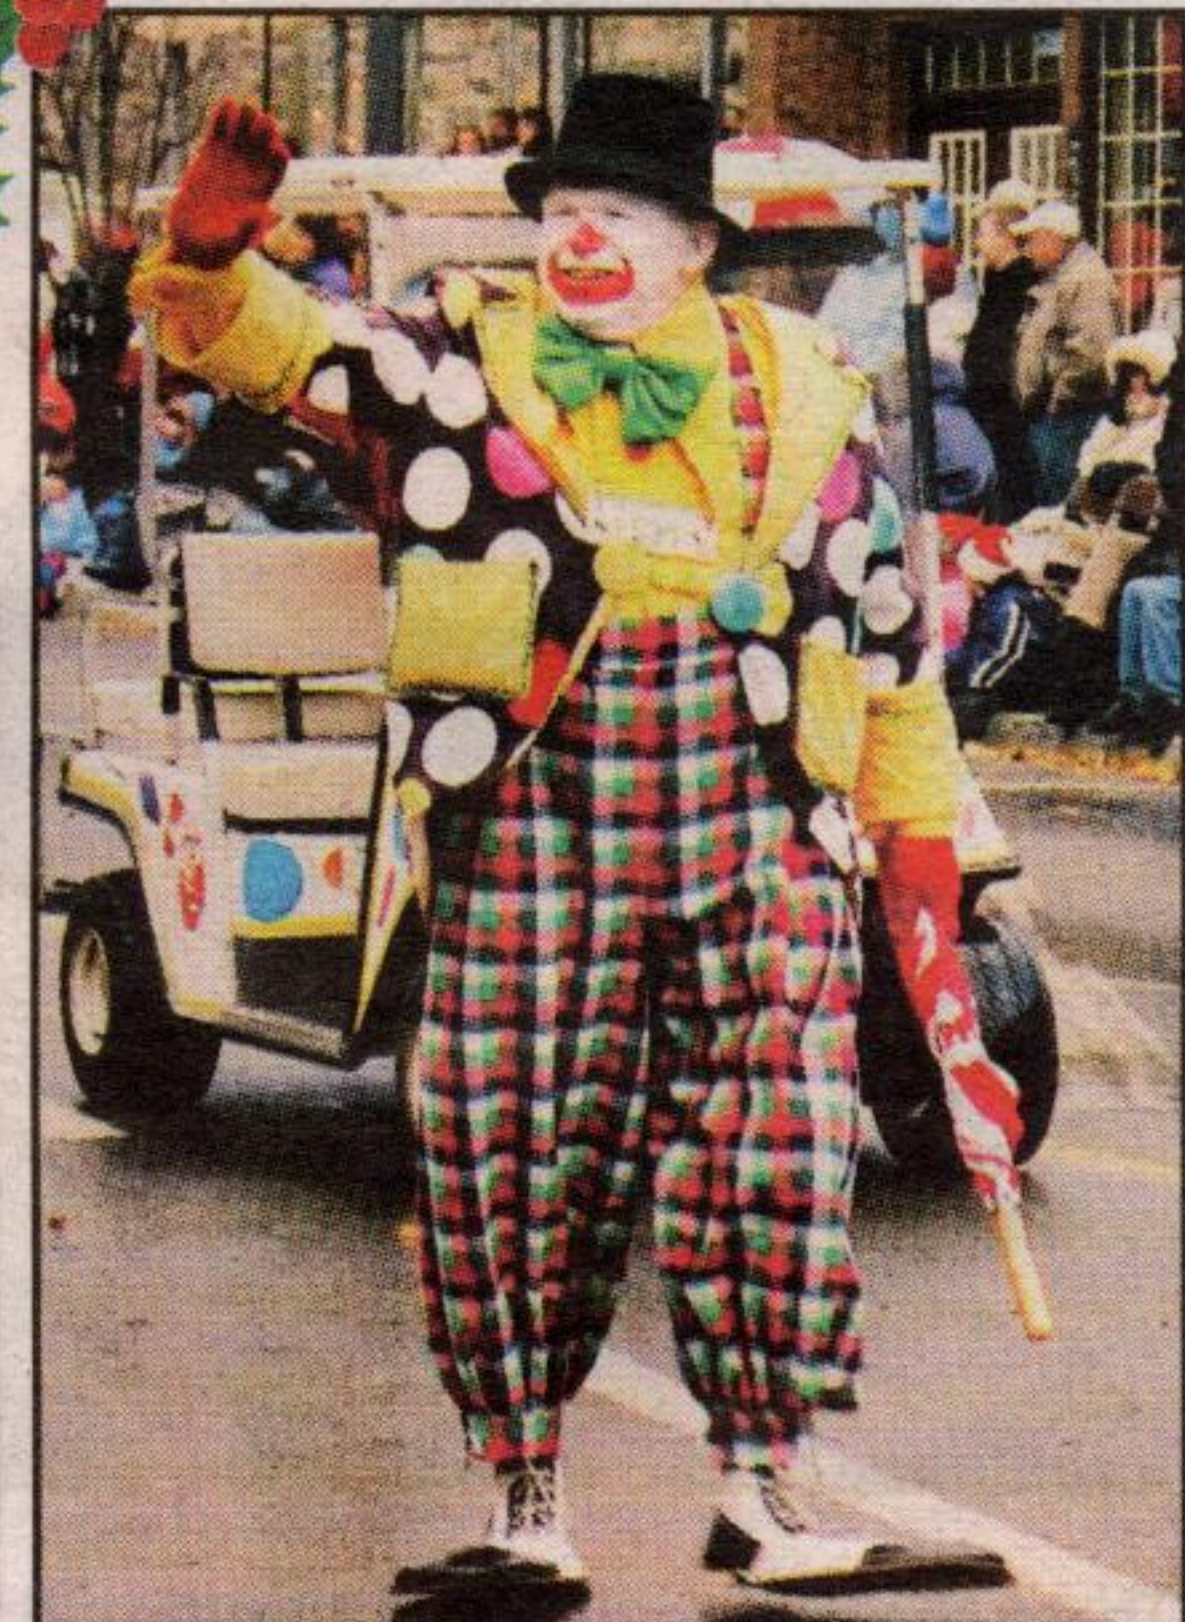

The Top Hat Marching Orchestra from Burlington dancing it up and marching on down.

Kind well wishing from the Holy Rosary Parish.

The captivating Burlington Teen Tour Band in their bright red coats.

Snuffy was one of the many clowns in this year's Christmas Parade.