Milton launches new phase of defibrillation program

Defibrillators placed at Town facilities and in fire trucks

By JENNIFER ENRIGHT

The Town of Milton launched the first phase of its new defibrillation program on December 20 with the placement of three public access defibrillators at Town facilities. As part of the same program, an additional seven defibrillators will be available to the Milton Fire Department.

The life-saving units can now be found at the Milton Leisure Centre, Town Hall and the Milton Library. Barry Kory, a training technician with the Milton Fire Department, says that similar units for use by trained firefighters will be placed in six of the department's front line trucks, with one for use at the training unit.

Mike & Carrie celebrate the birth of their first baby

Mike and Carrie Chong are the proud parents of a boy, William Cornelius Davidson Chong. Their first child was born at Groves Memorial Community Hospital on December 15.

Wellington-Halton Hills MP Mike Chong and his wife Carrie got an early Christmas gift this year with the birth of their first child on December 15.

The Chongs' son William Cornelius Davidson Chong was born at 5:21 am. at Groves Memorial Community Hospital. William was 5 lbs 7 ounces at birth.

The Chongs want to thank Dr. Sugamori, Dr. Otto, Dr. Norrie, and Dr. Gergovich for a safe delivery, and a special thanks to Dr Patrick Otto and his wonderful staff for their pre-natal care

William Chong is the grandson of Jan Davidson of Nanoose Bay, British Columbia, and Ardriana Chong of Guelph. His great-grandmother is Eileen Kellam of Toronto.
