Sports Celebrity Dinner Winner

By DONNA DANIELI

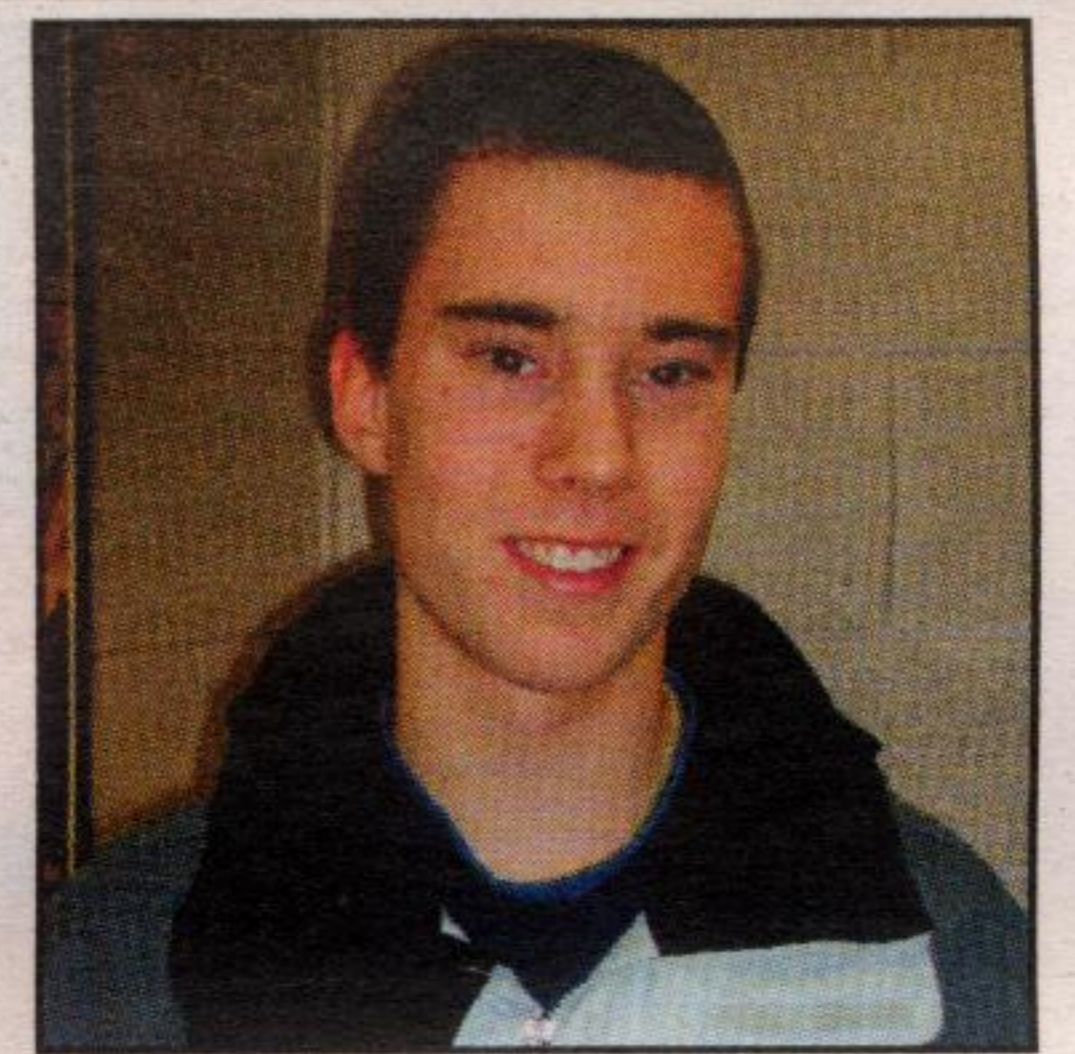

The Halton Compass is pleased to announce the winner of its "Win Dinner for 2 with a Sports Celebrity" essay competition. Local youngster Ryan Bauer (who attends Milton District High School) and his father Gary will attend the Milton Chamber of Commerce's Sports Celebrity Dinner on January 18 as the guests of the Halton Compass. They will enjoy dinner along with Compass publisher Stephen Baker and hockey legend Darryl Sittler. Sittler, of course, is best known as the highest goal scorer in the history of the Toronto Maple Leafs. He served as

Captain of the team for six of his twelve seasons with the Leafs, and made history with his eight consecutive seasons scoring thirty goals or more.

It was while flanked by fellow Leafs Lanny McDonald and Errol Thompson that Darryl Sittler helped make up the highest scoring line in Leaf history. Lanny McDonald will once again flank Sittler as they both attend the Sports Celebrity Dinner. McDonald is also well known to hockey fans for his memorable overtime goal scored (with both a fractured wrist and broken nose) for the Maple Leafs during the 1978 playoffs, eliminating the

New York Islanders from the quarterfinals. Rounding out the representation of former Leafs at the dinner will be Jim McKenny, who is also well known to fans as a sports specialist on "CityPulse at Six". Mr. McKenny will perform double duty on the 18th, signing autographs as well as acting as the master of ceremonies for the event.

Other sports celebrities attending the dinner at Glencairn Golf Club include 2004 Grey Cup Champions Mike O'Shea and Adrien Smith of the Toronto Argonauts. As well, Canadian Women's Hockey Team

Ryan Bauer

Goaltender Sami Jo Small, 2003 Canadian Champion Harness Driver Chris Christoforou and 2004 CASCAR National Champion Don Thompson Jr. will be on hand.

The dinner is now sold out and no more tickets are available.
