

fundraiser rousing success

Local country sensation, Alysha, wowed the crowd with her original music. Performing the title track of her album, Nuttin' but a Chevy, she was joined by a very talented group of young dancers.

Fundraiser organizer Donna Danielli meets Michael's great grandparents, Roger & Lucienne Monsere who made the trip from Tilsonburg along with a bus load of friends and family.

Compass designer Nina Gunby models two of the items available for the live auction, a signed Darryl Sittler jersey donated by Sittler, and an NHL jacket donated by NHL president Colin Campbell.

PHOTOS BY ANN KORNUA

Renowned Frank Sinatra impersonator, Rick Sonata, was an overwhelming hit with the audience at the fundraiser.

The Compass' own Bren Chisholm (far right) took the stage as part of the Caroline Wiles band.