

Savoline to hold Rural Community Forum

By DONNA DANIELI

Halton Regional Chairman Joyce Savoline wants to know what you think. She, along with Halton Police Chief Ean Algar will host a special "Rural Community Forum" on April 20 at 6:00 pm. Topics of discussion for the evening will include: safety and security, speeding and illegal parking, the new Draft Halton Tree By-Law, as well as traffic and road maintenance.

The evening forum is intended to enhance communication with rural residents and will take place in the Hearth Room at Halton Region Museum, which is located within Kelso Conservation Area in Milton.

Halton's public health staff will also be present that evening, collecting samples of well water as well as providing water sample collection bottles to those requiring them.

For more information, please contact Halton Region at 905-825-6000.
