Parade planned to mark VE Day on May 8

By JENNIFER ENRIGHT

The Royal Canadian Legion in Milton is holding a parade to honour veterans on VE Day on May 8 that will include a special wreath laying ceremony as well as live entertainment.

Laurie MacNab, the 1st Vice and Service/Seniors officer for the Legion, says veterans from the Legion as well as local cadets will take part in the parade which will begin at 1 pm at the Legion. The parade will proceed up Main Street to Brown Street, and then over to the Cenotaph at Victoria Park where there will be a brief service and wreath laying.

Between 1:30 and 1:45 pm, parade participants and spectators will get a chance to take part in what Laurie calls "An Afternoon in the Park." "The Memory Lane Orchestra from Oakville will play big band Glen Miller type music for an hour, in the band shell. Our Milton Kitchen Band will then follow for a half hour of sing-along old war tunes, winding everything up around 3:30 pm."

Laurie says she would encourage anyone attending to bring along a blanket or chairs.

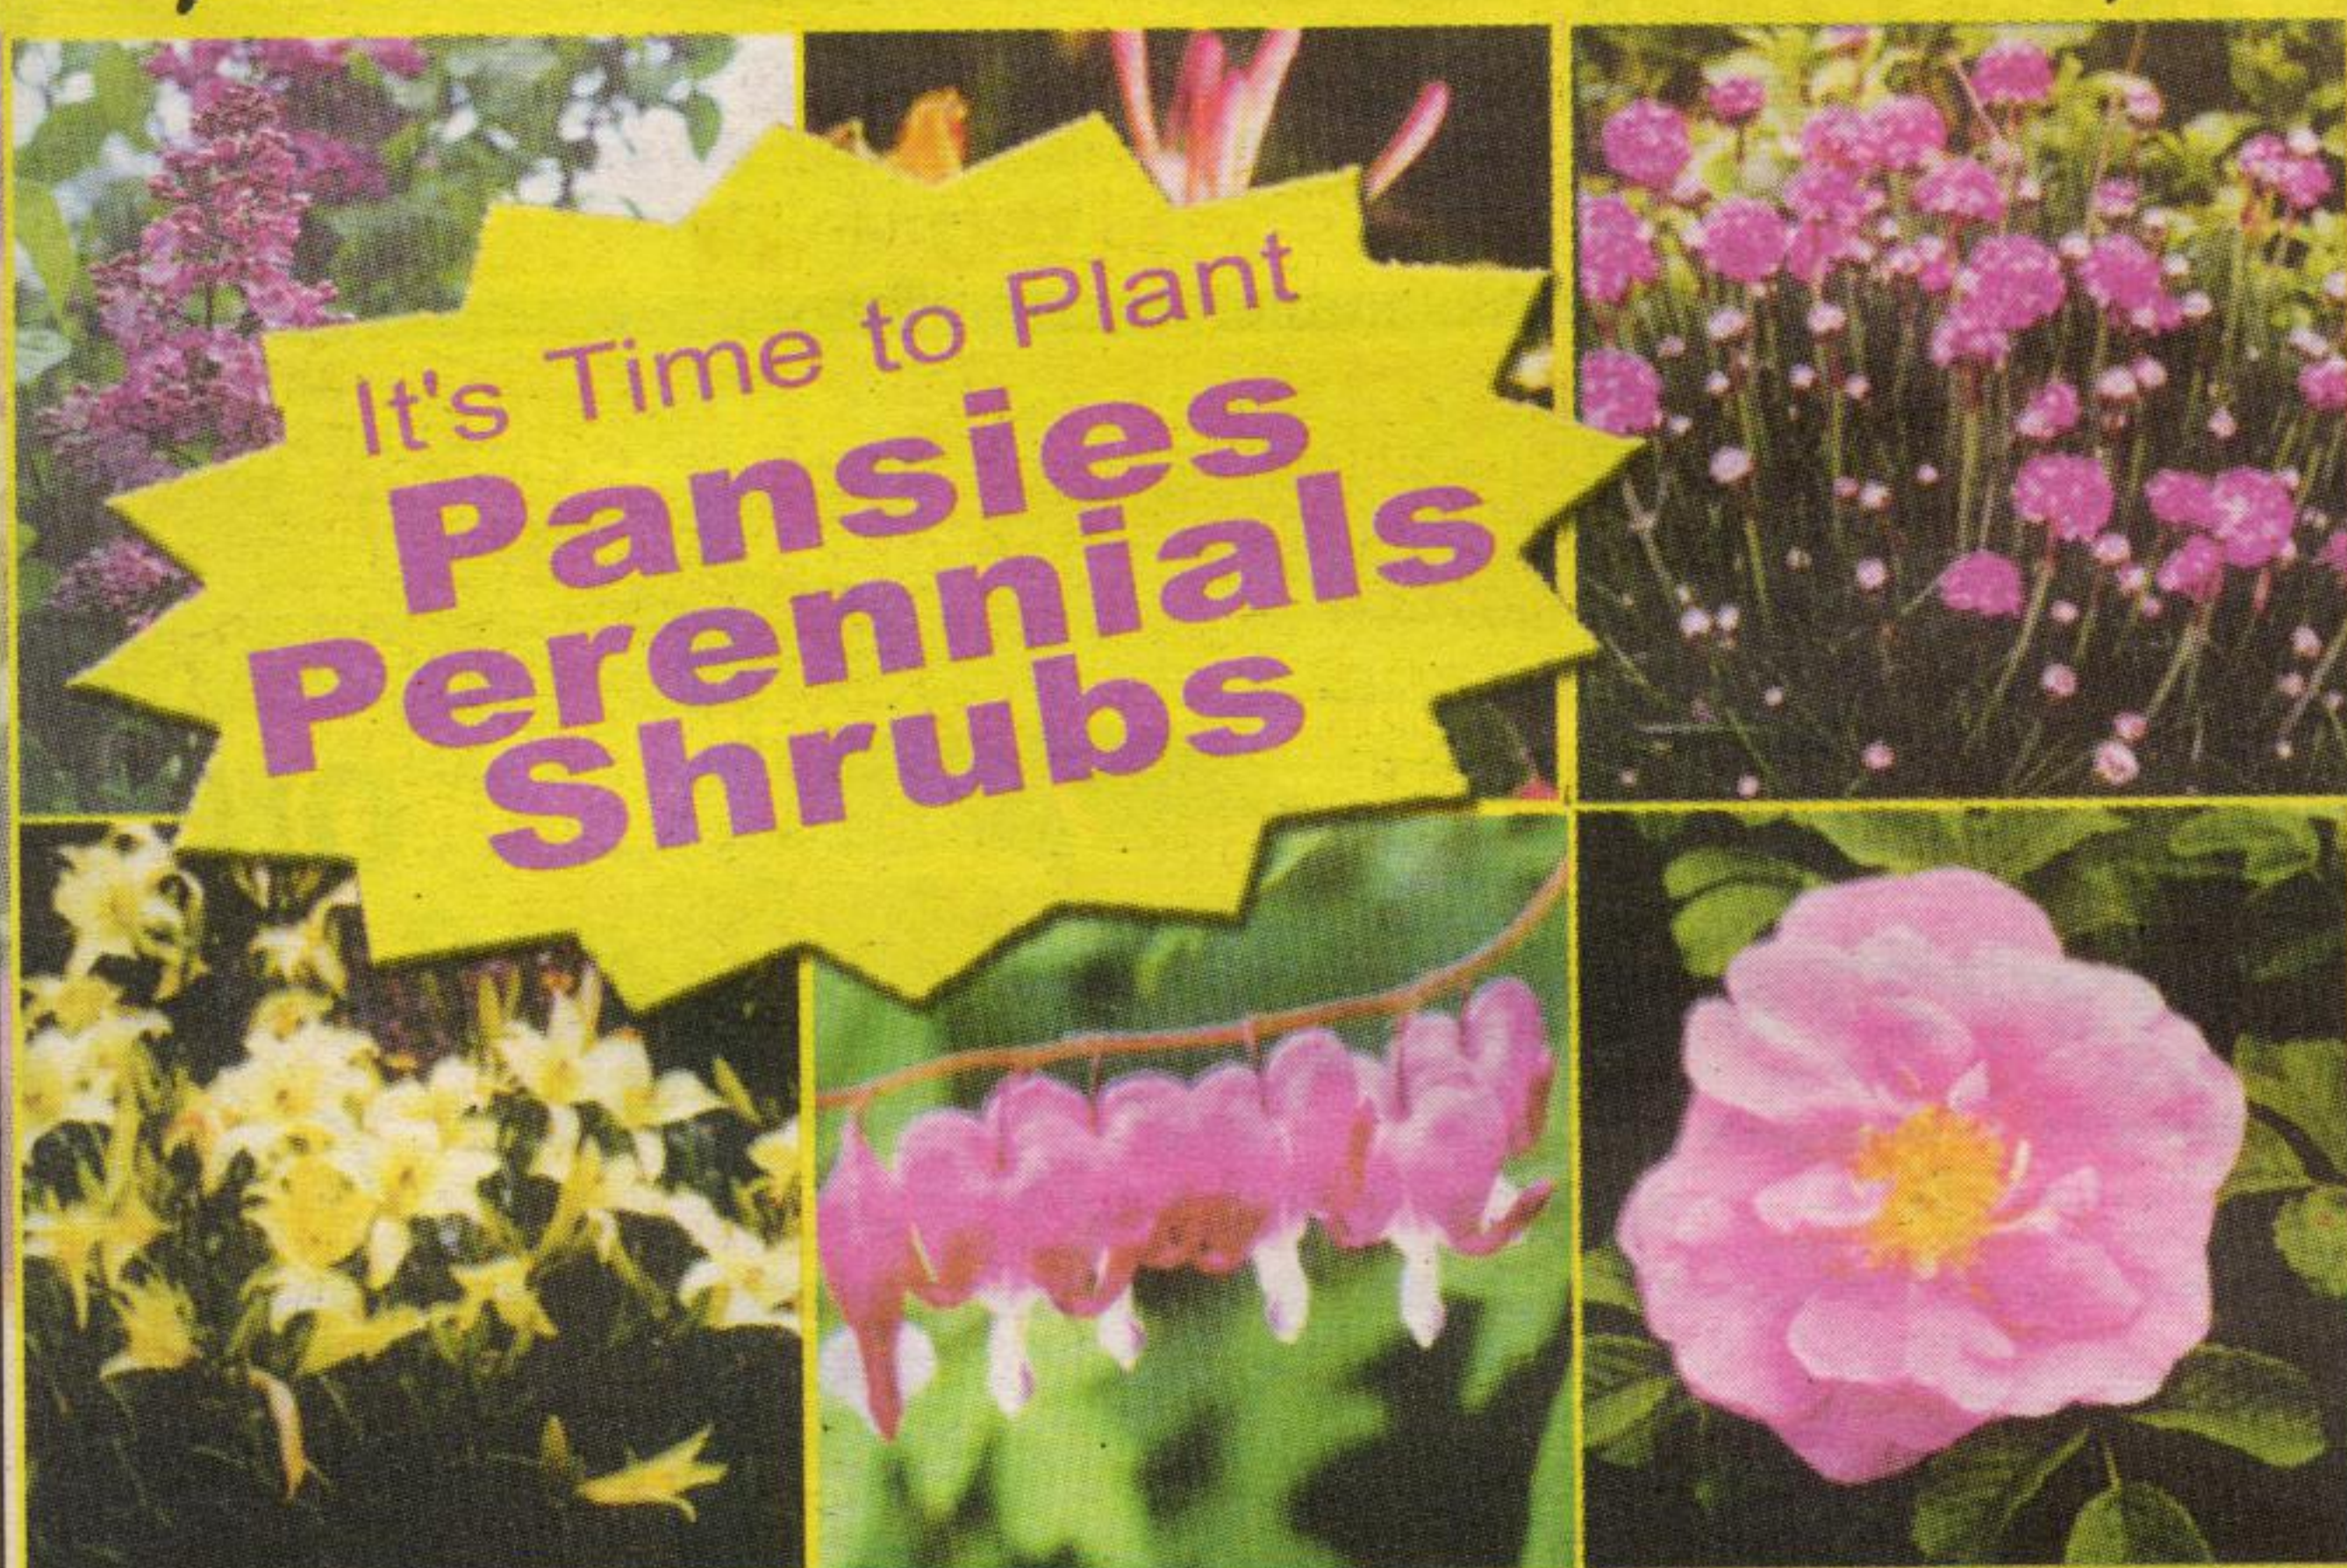

All veterans that want to take part in the parade should confirm attendance with the bar steward at the Legion by calling 905-878-9005 or by contacting Laurie MacNab at 905-875-4607. Messages can be left at Laurie's phone number. Veterans staying for the entertainment should also contact Laurie to reserve a chair.

Laurie says veterans don't have to be Legion members to take part in the parade.
