St John's Anglican Church Fundraiser

BY STEPHEN BAKER

The first signs of Spring are here. The raucous courtship of ducks and geese spoil the quietude of dusk and the first mosquitoes hover tentatively nearby not quite sure what to drink or where. Then there is the gentle hum of forklifts lining up neat rows of soil and mulch, in anticipation of the bedlam of pick-up day.

St John's Nassagaweya (Anglican Church) is celebrating its 165th year and as it does at this time of the year it is selling gardening products as a much needed fund raiser.

Available are Composted Soil; Composted Cattle Manure; Patio Soil; Canada Red Mulch; Pine nuggets; Cocoa Shell Mulch; and the always-popular Peat Moss.

Products will be available for pickup at the church on Guelph Line at 10th Sideroad on May 5, 6, and 7, but orders and payment must be made to the church by May 27th. Orders can be made at St George's Anglican Church situated at Guelph Line north of Derry Road during the trunk sale being held there on April 23rd.

For more information, contact Bev Parnaby 905-854-0275 or Helen O'Drowsky 519-853-4994

Men can cook

Chef of the Year, Geoff Rae, poses with the judiciary during the Real Men Can Cook event held on April 9 at St. Volodymyr's Cultural Centre in Oakville. The event raised approximately $30,000 for Drug Awareness Resistance Education (D.A.R.E.) Halton. Here, from left to right are Brad Townsend, Judge Agnes Potts, Mayor Ann Mulvale, Geoff Rae, Gail Crowell and Marion Kingston.
