Georgetown Raiders win Dudley-Hewitt Cup

Local heroes move on to national championship in Saskatchewan

By JOEL PETKOFF

The Georgetown Raiders have done it. For the first time in franchise history they have qualified for the Royal Bank Cup featuring the top Canadian tier 2 junior hockey clubs.

They defeated the St. Michael's Buzzers 3 - 1 on Saturday night in front of a boisterous hometown crowd of 1100 frenzied fans. Inspired by the return of the regular season leading scorer Kevin Harvey, the Raiders came out flying getting many chances in the first few minutes. Once again John Barrow was stellar in net for Georgetown frustrating the Buzzers time and time again. Late in the first, Georgetown converted on a power play, with hometown boy Jay Sprague on a deflection to go up 1 - 0. In the second period on a beautiful effort by Charles Amodeo, Georgetown took a 2 - 0 lead, followed within five minutes with a goal by Kevin Harvey to take a commanding 3 - 0 lead. Great defensive work for the remainder of the second period slammed the door shut on the Buzzers. In the third period both teams traded chances with St. Mikes finally getting one past Barrow. It wasn't enough as Georgetown tightened up the defence and shut St. Mikes down right through the dying seconds amid chants of "RBC" "RBC" "RBC" echoing throughout the Moldmaster Sportsplex.

Halton Hills debates Transit

By JERRY FORD

Any discussion about a transit system for Halton Hills inevitably leads to strong opinions and a polarization of viewpoints.

On Monday April 25 a public meeting was held at the Halton Hills Civic Centre to consider the results of a proposal prepared by ENTRA Consultants and endorsed by town staff.

"A TRANSIT SYSTEM WILL NOT KEEP THE RIFF-RAFF OUT, THEY HAVE CARS"

The meeting was attended by a number of residents who expressed differing points of view, which in one case
