

Milton welcomes "Elvis" at Arts Milton Festival

By DONNA DANIELLI

Elvis will be in the house as the curtain opens on the finale show for the Arts Milton Festival on May 28 as world renowned tribute artist Stephen Kabakos hits the stage.

Stephen, a Milton resident who has won the approval of countless fans with his flawless portrayal of the King, will work his magic once more for his hometown. Grand Champion of the 2001 Images of the King Competition in Memphis, Tennessee, Stephen brings all his passion and skill to bear in his high energy and dynamic stage show. His mastery of not only the look of Elvis, but also the sound, vocal dexterity and mannerisms of the famed performer have led to many sell out performances to fans all over the world.

Playing Elvis at all stages of his career, from the Golden to the Vegas years, Stephen's list of television and theatre credits are as impressive as the sold out concert productions he has regularly directed.

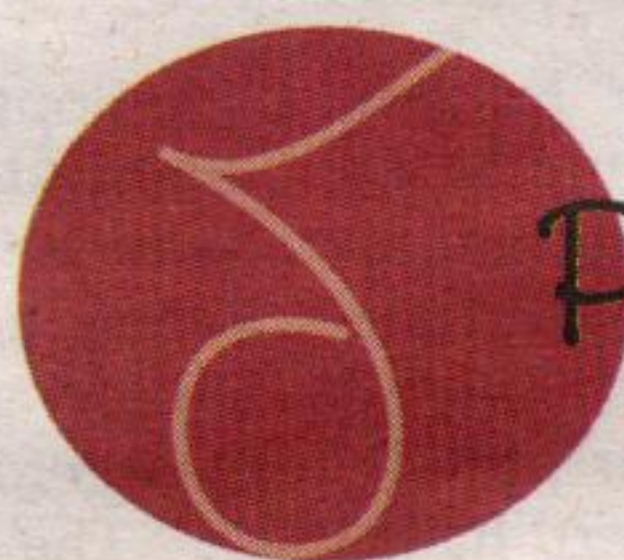

Tickets for the finale show, which will feature popular new Campbellville band Life Time Drive (LTD) as the opening act, are available for a cost of $25 at the Dorland-Haight Galleries, 144 Main Street, Milton. Remaining tickets will also be available at the door. The finale show will take place at the Milton Fairgrounds Grand Stand from 7pm to 10 pm on Saturday May 28. For more information, please call June Hollenbeck at 905-875-1751.
