Visions Canada Awards

More than thirty student projects were recently honoured at the Visions Canada Award Ceremony at Halton Region Museum. Visions Canada is an annual award program organized by the Halton District School Board, the Halton Catholic District School Board and the Halton Region Museum. Students submit their impressions of Canada's history, people, geography, culture or society through projects of an academic or artistic nature.

Kim Wallace of the Halton District School Board was on hand to present (left to right) David Cox, Cameron Shortt and Scott Green with their Visions Canada Award. The three grade 8 students from Stewarttown Public School created a board game called "Journey to the West".

Grade Four Brookville Public School Student Damian Ewing, shown here with Milton School Trustee Paul Tate and RCMP Constable Judy Laurence, received the Visions Canada award for his innovative project on the Northwest Territories, which included a home made video and poster.

Kerstyn Woolley (middle) and Natalie Perna are shown here with Kim Wallace of the Halton District School Board. The two grade 7 students from St. Brigid Catholic School in Halton Hills received the Visions Canada award for their project "the History Behind Cedarvale Park".

Margaret Warmels, of the Halton Catholic District School Board presented a group award to Miss Hutcheson and Mrs Porco's grade four classes from St. Catherine of Alexandria Catholic School in Halton Hills. On hand to accept the award were students (left to right): Daniella Cavallini, Lindsay Cameron, Jane Gallagher and Taylor Ward.
