Deidre Doll

BY ANN KORNUA

On Saturday July 23, a special Deidre Doll will be the prize in a raffle at the Deidre and Friends Foundation Golf Tournament. Tickets to win the doll are still available at $2 per ticket and $5 for three. Currently the soft plush doll is on display at Milton's Irresistible Dolls Gallery located on 86 Main Street Main Street.

Lisa Stoodley, doll artist and owner of Irresistible Dolls Gallery, hand created the soft plush doll this spring for the Deidre and Friends Foundation. Money raised from the Deidre Doll will go help families in need of assistance during their battles with bone marrow illnesses. As well through their donations, the foundation is able to help fund research new treatments for patients.

There is still time to get tickets for the adorable Deidre Doll. This doll is a one of a kind special plush and will make any loving person smile knowing that it was to restore help in the hearts of families. Stop by Irresistible Dolls in Milton to catch a glimpse of huggable hope before she is gone. For further information, visit the Deidre and Friends Foundation website at www.deidrebmt.ca or the Irresistible Dolls website at www.irresistibledolls.com.
