

Rock the House benefit concert

PHOTOS BY DONNA DANIELLI

It was standing room only for the "Rock the House" benefit concert held June 10 at Mohawk Inn in Campbellville. The sold out event featured five bands: Exit 88, the Skillshine Dubs, James Alex, LifeTimeDrive (L.T.D.) and Dead Celebrity. "I'm very pleased with the event," says organizer Ann Kornuta. "We raised over $400 for the Affordable Housing Coalition."

Milton Councillor Wendy Schau was on hand for the event, as the Affordable Housing Coalition is an organization near and dear to her heart. "Along with seniors, people under 25 are the age group most in need of affordable housing in halton," she told the audience, the majority of whom are within that under 25 age bracket. The Affordable Housing Coalition is dedicated to raising awareness of the need for affordable housing and working with others on initiatives to provide that housing.

The high energy performance of the Skillshine Dubs had the audience on their feet the whole time they played. Shown here is guitarist Ty MacKenzie.

James Alex croons "Foolish Girl", a fan favourite, during his band's performance.
