the mayor's column

On behalf of Council, I am proud to welcome Bernia Canada back to Halton Hills!

Bernia Canada is a local business that specializes in the manufacture of pressure sensitive, grocery retail, and industrial shipping labels. In 1985, Sal Moguera-Mas Sr. started Bernia Canada in the basement of his home in Georgetown. The family business soon grew, and the manufacturing plant ended up in Mississauga. In 2004, the business relocated back to Halton Hills, and earlier this year occupied its new 40,000 square foot manufacturing plant on Todd Road in Georgetown.

I want to encourage all residents to join me in the 'Walk the Hills' Challenge! 'Walk the Hills' is a community campaign designed to get residents of Halton Hills physically active through walking. Did you know that almost 50% of adults in the Halton region aren't active enough to experience health benefits! Let's get Active Halton Hills! I will be walking and logging my walking hours throughout the campaign. Pick up a Personal Walking Log at any Town facility or by downloading it from the Halton Hills website at www.haltonhills.ca. Log your hours and enter to win! For more details and resources I encourage you to visit the 'Active Halton Hills' section on the website and follow the links for "Walk the Hills"!

At the end of this month, Mr. Henry Helfant, proprietor of H. & H. Men's Quality Clothing on Main Street, Georgetown, is closing after 54 years of service in our community. In today's business environment, it would be hard to find many others who have been in one location for such a long period of time. Au revoir to you Henry, and your wife Mayou. Happy Retirement!

On Saturday, June 25, Acton Legion Branch 197 hosted a parade in honour of 2005 "The Year of the Veteran". Festivities began at 1 pm from the Old Hide House parking lot. This was a wonderful opportunity to thank a veteran!

Every year the Ministry of Citizenship and Immigration proclaims the month of June as "Seniors Month". The slogan this year was "Active Living - It's For Life". On Saturday, June 25th the Georgetown and Acton Seniors' Centres both celebrated 10th anniversaries. Special events took place at each location. Many thanks to all seniors who have served as Board Members over the years.

Council welcomes the following new business:

Acton Optical

Keeping it real!
