

Milton's 45th annual Steam-Era

Blowing off steam. Engine from Sheffield On. Steve Bratina and owner George Wynen Jr. on Main St. in Milton for the 45th annual Steam-Era at the Milton Fairgrounds.

Walter Deadman of Cambridge with a huge motor from the Kitchener Water Pumping Station at Steam-Era in Milton.

Trevor Mitchell 8 leads the parade of equipment in front of the Milton Fairgrounds Grandstand Saturday afternoon.

Rumley Oil tractors rumble through Milton Streets.

Doug Tallon of Wellandport and David McBay of Caledonia emptying a flatbed of barley and oats in preparation for the stooking contest.

PHOTOS BY PETER C. MCCUSKER

The big and the small of it all at the Milton 45th. annual Steam-Era at the Milton Fairgrounds this weekend. Bob Michael of Campbellford Ont. drives his son's locomotive across the track in front of huge dinosaur Sawyer Massey steam tractors around a century old.

1912 Nichols Shepard Co. of Battle Creek Michigan owned by Wayne Fischer of Pushlinch.