Tree by-law is passed, but it's no clear cut answer

BY BERNADETTE WARD

There may be a tree by-law in Halton starting in January 2006, but trees will still fall say both its supporters and its detractors.

"Don't think that the by-law will affect the number of trees coming down in Halton," said Jamie Fisher, a member of the Halton Agricultural Advisory Committee

(HAAC).

It took two years of consultations between the Region, residents and community groups. Countless trees no doubt gave their lives in paper during the effort
