

The Importance of Being Earnest

The Georgetown Little Theatre (GLT) kicks off its 45th season on November 3 with the classic comedy "The Importance of Being Earnest" by Oscar Wilde. Set in Victorian England, the play follows the romantic misadventures of two young bachelors, Jack and Algernon, as they pursue their true loves, Gwendolyn and Cecily. Along the way are plots, seductions, reversals, mistaken identities and battles between the sexes, all framed with Wilde's sparkling wit and scathing observations of high society that still make audiences laugh out loud today.

Staged in full Victorian period costumes and sets, "Earnest" is an ambitious choice for GLT's opener which promises to be well worth the effort. Experienced director Kathryn DeLory, in her first production with GLT, has taken the reins with gusto and has put together a terrific cast which includes GLT favourites David Brock and Marg Brady as well as talented newcomers Kathy Santha, Julia Lederer and Brian Jedan.

The production will run November 3 through 5 and 9 through 12. Tickets are $15 for Wednesday and Thursday performances and $18 for Friday and Saturday. For more information contact the John Elliott Theatre in Georgetown at (905) 877-3700 or try the website at www.georgetownlittletheatre.ca.
