Acton skaters strike gold, silver, bronze

By BARB METELKA
Special to the Tanner

Eight Acton figure skaters travelled to Uxbridge last weekend to compete in the annual Uxbridge Invitational Competition. This group of young ladies, all of whom skate with the newly formed Halton Hills Skating Academy (HHS),

The young ladies performed admirably and produced some outstanding and unprecedented results.

Kaylyn McGilloway,

Angela Schrempf and Kyra Malcolm all took Gold medals in their flights at the Preliminary Ladies level.

These talented athletes came through once again pulling off an Acton sweep! Schrempf took the Bronze, McGilloway the Silver and Malcolm won Gold Overall with her spirited "Riverdance" inspired freeskate.

HHS coach Cindy Currie was thrilled with the results and said that this was a first for Acton and that everyone should be extremely proud.

Other HHS competitors were: Cora Rutledge who won two Bronze medals, one for her freeskate in the Ladies Open category and one for her Silver Artistic portrayal of "Mafia Girl"; Holly Bailie who skated to a sixth place finish in the Pre-Preliminary Ladies category; Tracy Schrempf, skating in the Juvenile Ladies level for her first competition; and Jessie Metelka, who competed at the Junior Ladies level.

Acton Indoor Soccer

UNDER 10

Nathan Reinders was hot, scoring five goals to lead Acton Veterinary Clinic to a hard-fought 8-7 win against MacMillian's Frozen Foods and Vegetables in Indoor Soccer action on Saturday in the McKenzie-Smith Bennett gym.

Team mate Kyle Nap found the net three times and had three assists while Cameron O'Rourke and Matthew Newman each had single assists.

The Dickieson brothers were tough to beat with persistent and aggressive play for McMillian's. Jordan Dickieson scored five of his team's goals, assisted on several of the markers by brother Josh who also scored one goal.

Dan Patterson had a single goal and three assists.

Tim Medland scored a hat trick to lead the Blue team to a 9-0 romp over the White team in Under-10 action on Saturday at MSB.

Nils-Olav Stockinger and Garrett Nuttal each scored twice while Brydon Pole and Mitchell Thomas each had singles.

UNDER-13

Justin Goodlet had a hat trick to lead the White team to a 3-1 win over Lakesview Flooring on Saturday at MSB. Derek Thomas had the lone marker for Lakeview.

Bev Gray Associates continue to make steady progress in Under-13 soccer action as shown by their 9-4 win on Saturday over Acton

Musicland in Indoor Soccer action at MSB.

Both Joe Douglas and Daniel Nikic both scored hat tricks in a fast-paced, well-played game. Nikic also had an assist while team mate Kim Jaskulski found the net twice and Matt Youngblutt had a single and two assists. Torin Doppelt also had an assist.

Musicland's goals came from Denise Barends, who also had an assist, and Rachel Turner, Thomas Ferrier and Katy Boychuk.
