TYKE

Acton Auto Tech and A & S Engraving battled to a 6-all tie in Tyke House League hockey action on Saturday at the Acton Arena.

It was a fast-pace, evenly matched game in which each team took turns scoring.

Andrew Baklarz led off the Auto Tech scoring with assists from Riley McGilloway and Stephen Wolstenholme.

David Gardener found the net twice for Auto Tech with assists from Michael McConnell and McGilloway, who also assisted on both of Kevin Vickery's goals and one netted by Matthew Mills.

Acton Auto Tech pulled their goalie in the last minute of the game to try to break the tie but the strategy didn't work.

Jessy Kuenzig was hot for A & S Engraving, scoring four goals and assisting on goals from Dylan Creasey, who also had two assists, and Christopher Legge.

Brandon Masini also was credited with an assist and A & S Engraving's goalie Tom Harding played an excellent game in the net.

First place Best Transfer and last place J.T. Young Power fought to a 6-all draw in another Tyke game Saturday at Acton Arena.

J.T. Young Power worked hard to come from behind and tie the game. Sean Terry was outstanding, leading the J.T. Young scoring with five goals and an assist.

Alexander Brake, a forward, also played a great defensive game and was credited with a lone marker for J.T. Young. Shawna Druif, who scored with just 30 seconds to tie the game, also had an assist in the game.

J.T. Young goalie Dirk Van Soelen was crisp in the net, repelling many of the shots on goal.

Both Stephen Bennett and Michael McKeon scored twice for Best Transfer and the other Best markers came off the sticks of Evan Lavallee, who stopped a couple of break-aways and made some nice passes in front of the net, and David Carscadden, who also had an assist.

Also credited with assists for Best were Michael McKeon and Taylor McNabb. Gordie McKeon played a strong game offensively and also had an assist while teammates Lucas Fraser played a strong game in the net for Best Transfer.

NOVICE

MacMillan's Frozen Foods and Vegetables put a lock on first place in Novice House Legaue hockey action with a 6-2 drubbing of MacKenzie Chapman at Acton Arena on Saturday, the last regular season game.

MacMillan's had the best goals against stats and Kevin deForest took the League scoring title.

DeForest was responsible for four of his team's goals and also had an assist. Dylan McPhail and Adrian Schroeder, who was also credited with three assists, netted other MacMillan's goals. Taylor MacKenzie also had an assist.

MacMillan's showed solid defense, great back checking and a total team effort.

Jeremy Stevens scored both of MacKenzie Chapman's markers with an assist from Alex Hunak.

Liam Heelis scored twice to help M & M Pro Sports squeak out a 3-2 win over Legion Banch 197 in Novice Division action at Acton Arena on Saturday. It was the last game of the regular season.

Brendan Shatti scored the other M & M goal with assists from Andrew Bayton and Luke Gibbons. Team mate's ucas Tyrell and Corey Tennier also had assists.

Goalie Richard Brownlee played a strong game between the pipes and Michael Kellas played a strong defensive game.

Matt Jones and Joshua Ceccotti scooped the Legion's markers while team mates

Nathan Brown, Matt Diegel, Elias Frechette and Bryan Ruigrok had assists.

ATOM

There were three Aton Divisions games Saturday at the Acton Arena.

Joel Graydon scored six goals and had an assist to help power Nellis Construction to an 8-4 victory over Allostra Catering.

Trent Toeletzka scored both of his goals for Nellis in the first period with assists from Bradley Durocher and Brendon Pezzak.

Ches Zaborowski had two assists for Nellis while teammates Kyle Toeletzka and Mark Southworth each had single assists.

Allostra Catering's Robbie Rolfe scored the first of his two goals in the first period with an assist from Kyle Lavallee. Matthew Sebastian assisted on Rolfe's second marker. Rolfe also had two assists.

Brandon Ceccotti also found the net twice for Allostra and Kyle Murray had an assist.

R & M Construction and Halton Power Line, in a battle for first place in the Atom Division, fought to a 1-all tie on Saturday at Acton Arena.

Luke Hurren potted R & M's Powerline's lone marker with an assist from Mike Kuipery while Jason Beatty had found the net for Powerline with an assist from Andrew Friolet.

R & M net-minder C.J. Carr played an excellent game, as did Powerline's goalie Anthony Price. Both teams played great defensive games. R & M remain in first place in the Atom Division.

Georgetown Chrysler and The Graphic Shoppe battled to a 4-4 tie in Atom hockey action at Acton Arena on Saturday.

Dennis Hunak and Neil Armstrong both found the net twice and Hunak had an assist while Armstrong had two for Georgetown Chrysler.

BANTAM

Acton Firefighters Bantam I team dropped a 5-2 loss to Fergus in Erin Monday night, ending their participation in all-Ontario Minor Hockey Association play-off action.

Jason Bonus and Joe Fields each found the net for Acton with assists from Joe Thompson, Dave Iacocca and Mitch Moore.

Coach Steve Robertson was both disappointed and puzzled by the series.

"Of the five games we played against Fergus we only came to play hockey twice and I don't know why," Robertson said in a interview on Monday

Acton was up 1-0 in the first period of Monday's game but Fergus came back in the second with three goals in the second period.

Acton made it 3-2 and Fergus answered with two goals late in the third period making it 5-2.

Game four, a 3-1 loss on Saturday at Acton put Fergus one point away from taking the series.

That game was scoreless until the third period when Fergus netted two quick goals in five minutes.

Acton pulled its goalie and Fergus scored again for the win.

David Iacocca had Acton's lone goal and Rob Morris looked good in goal for Acton.

Mustangs take consolation final

The McKenzie-Smith Bennett (MSB) Mustang Girls captured the Consolation Championship on Saturday at the Mustang Basketball Tournament, an annual for the Acton school.

The Mustang Boys dropped a close 34-30 loss to Oakville's River Oaks.

The MSB Girls won the consolation game with a 32-14 score over E.J. James of Oakville.

Acton's Ashley Stinson and Meighan McIntyre both were high scorers with eight baskets apiece and Kimerly Roberts scored six points.

The game was close early on, but the MSB Girls pulled ahead with some solid team defence and heads-up passing. Two players, Erin Koebel and Stinson, both off recently with injuries, were key to the victory.

Josh Bowen is credited with a solid effort in the Boys consolation game. Team mates Mark Chumley and Nathan Bowen looked good.

Six boys and six girls teams suited up for the weekend tournament which drew large crowds to both gyms at MSB.

MSB coach and teacher David Walker issued special thanks to the players, parent volunteers and referees, visiting team coaches, Fred Ross, James Lang and Steve Hallsworth.
