House league hockey playoffs underway

TYKE

Regular season points leaders Best Transfer continued their winning ways with a convincing 7-2 drubbing of A & S Engraving in Tyke playoff action on Saturday at Acton.

Stephen Bennett, high Tyke scorer in regular season play, kicked off the Best scoring in the first period of a pass from David Carscadden and Evan Lavallee. Lucas Fraser found the net twice in the second period with an assist on the first one from Matthew Bentley. Lavallee's unassisted marker made it 3-0, but A & S's Jessie Kuenzig scored the first of his two goals to make it 4-1 heading into the final period.

Michael McKeon's unassisted goal early in the third period made it 5-1, and Bennett's second goal of the game made it 6-1 for Best. Gordon McKeon then found the net late in the third period with help from Bennett and Carscadden. Kuenzig, unassisted, scored A & S's second goal with just 1:16 left on the clock.

Too little, too late for J.T. Young Power Contractors as an attempted third period comeback in House League Tyke playoffs Saturday in Acton failed. Four goals from Riley McGilloway helped power Auto Tech to a 7-3 win over J.T. Young.

Acton Auto Tech dominated the first two periods, scoring four unanswered goals, including two unassisted from David Gardener and a single from Kevin Vickery who scored on a pass from Michael McConnell and a single from Riley McGilloway to make it 4-0 heading into the second.

The only scoring in the second period was off the stick of McGilloway with an assist to Brandyn McCarthy.

J.T. Young Power Contractors Sean Terry stormed into the third period, scoring three goals in quick succession with two assists to Alexander Brake and one to Colton Burgan, to make it 5-3.

Auto Tech's McGilloway answered in the final minutes of the game with his third and fourth markers; one assisted by Curtis Marcoux.

NOVICE

MacKenzie Chapman, tied for first in regular season House League Novice action, opened playoff action with a 7-4 win over Acton Legion Branch 197 on Saturday in Acton.

Jeremy Stevens led the MacKenzie Chapman charge, scoring four times with separate assists from Kyle LaBlanc and Chris Viel.

David Garvie's unassisted goal opened the scoring in the first period for Legion and Stevens answered with the first two of his markers to make it 2-1 MacKenzie Chapman going into the second period.

Timothy Tysoe, who ended the game with a hat trick, quickly found the net twice, unassisted, and Stevens scored again to make it 5-1 at the end of the second.

Tysoe and Stevens each scored again in the third for MacKenzie Chapman to make it 7-1, but then the Legion really hustled, scoring three goals in the final two and a half minutes of the game. Garvie had his second goal of the game with help from Matt Jones and Elias Frechette. Jones then scored on a pass from Preston Becker to end the game 7-4 for MacKenzie Chapman

Both Dylan McPhail and Kevin DeForest scored twice to take MacMillan's Frozen

Foods and Vegetables, tied for first after regular season play, to a 4-3 win over M & M Pro Sports in Novice playoff action on Saturday at Acton.

McPhail, unassisted, opened the scoring in the first for Macmillan's while Liam Heelis put M & M on the score board with an unassisted goal. DeForest scored again to end the first 2-1.

McPhail again found the net for Macmillan's in the second period to make it 3-1.

DeForest opened the third with a goal off a James Reid pass and to make it 4-1. Andrew Baynton scored twice in third period with help on both goals from Heelis to end the game 4-3 for MacMillan's.

ATOM

R & M Construction ended regular season House League Atom Division play in Acton with a 4-all tie with The Graphic Shoppe, which finished the season in third place.

Jay Lalonde put the Graphic Shoppe on the board in the first period with an assist from Gavin Anderson. R & M's Jonathan Tysoe scored unassisted and Mike Kuiper found the net twice for R & M before Tysoe scored again with help from Michael English who picked up assists on two of the goals to make it 3-2 going into the third period.

Ryan Stroud found the net with help from Daniel McLeod to make it 4-3 for R & M and the tying goal was scored by Michael Bentley in the last few minutes of the game which ended after two end-to-end breakaways were foiled by two great saves at either end by Tyler Knoepfli for The Graphic Shoppe and C. J. Carr for R & M.

Bowling lanes buzzing

By ELLEN PIEHL
 The New Tanner

There was plenty of action at the Acton Bowling Lanes in the month of January in both Youth and Adult Leagues.

Starting with the Acton Youth Bowling Council, congratulations go out to all the Four Steps to Stardom winners who are off to the Regionals taking place Feb. 21, 22 and March 1 in Streetsville, Brampton and Georgetown.

In the Adult League, the King and Queen of the Lanes (most improved bowlers) for January go to Sue Poulsen with a +8 and Gord Corcoran with a +10. Both bowlers are from the first shift of the Friday Night Mixed League.

Our turkey winner for January is Frank Thompson of the Golden Agers League.

Finally, just a reminder of the Scotch-doubles Tournament on March 21 at the Acton Bowling Lanes.

Sampson nets 5 for Town Milk

UNDER-7

Rebecca Sampson was unstoppable, scoring five goals to lead Acton Town Milk to a 6-5 win over Denny's in Under-7 Indoor Soccer play at McKenzie-Smith Bennett on Saturday.

Stephen Van Helden also scored for Town Milk and assists went to Jesse Steenhuis, Kyle Hamilton and Kyle Tulk. Town Milk Coach Shawn Sampson said the squad showed great team playing.

Both Mark Wells and Thomas Pottruff found the net twice for Denny's while teammate Danielle Cooper had a single and Kevin Lee was credited with an assist. Coach Randy Wells said that all the players had a good game, including some great saves from netminders Cooper and Pottruff.

UNDER-10

Tim Medland scored four goals to lead Molin Publishing to a 7-0 rout over the No. 2 White team in Under-10

Indoor Soccer play at MSB on Saturday.

Molin's other goals came from Brydon Pole, Nils-Olav Stockinger and Corey Drumm.

Assists went to Mitchell Thomas who had two, and Drumm and Stockinger.

White team players Shaun Morin and Angleynn Bland deserve special mention for their excellent sportsmanship.

Nathan Reinders had four goals while teammate Kyle Napp had a hat trick to help Acton Veterinary to an 8-1 drubbing over MacMillan's Frozen Food and Vegetables in Under-10 soccer play on Saturday at MSB.

Cameron O'Rourke booted in the Vet's other marker and assists went to Napp, Reinders, Ryan Pimentel who had three and O'Rourke who had two.

Coach Harry Reinders said MacMillan's was out shot in the first half while Acton Veterinary scored six of its goals. MacMillan's was strong in the second half but just couldn't make up the deficit.

UNDER-13

Acton Musicland squeaked out a 3-2 win over Bev Gray and Associates in Under-13 Indoor Soccer action on Saturday at MSB.

Thomas Ferrier led the scoring for Musicland while teammate Derek Thomas found the net twice. Rachel Turner is also credited with strong play for Musicland.

Lisa Robson and Tanya Pereira scored Bev Gray's two markers while the whole team put in a good effort and Robson and Daniel Nikic played a strong game in goal.

Leanne Marcoux scored four goals to help the White team double Lakeview Flooring 10-5 in a fast-paced Under-13 Indoor Soccer play on Saturday at MSB. Teammate Justin Goodlet had a hat
