

Caught in the act, man arrested

A 42-year-old man will be back in court March 23 after being arrested early Saturday morning after trying to break into an Elmore Drive home.

Police were called to the home at 12:30 a.m. and members of the Street Crime Unit made the arrest after the suspect ran from the rear of the home. Police found that a screen had been opened and a window pried, but the house was not entered and nothing was stolen.

Assault and drug charge

A McDonald Boulevard man will be back in Milton court March 23 after being charged with assault, level one after he banged his girlfriend's head into a washing machine at 239 Mill St. E. last Wednesday evening.

The 31-year-old man was also charged with possession of a controlled substance after a police search after his arrest turned up a small quantity of hash oil.

Love triangle assault

A 19-year-old Poplar Avenue woman was charged with assault, level one, after she kicked another female in the stomach on Mill Street last Thursday evening.

Police report the victim was sitting in her car with her boyfriend at 25 Mill Street, East, when she was pulled from the vehicle and assaulted. The accused appears in Milton court on March 23.

Pop machine pried open

There are no suspects and no witnesses to the theft of $300 in coins from pop machines in the IGA parking lot on Main Street. Police report the thieves pried open the coin boxes overnight last Wednesday.

Impaired charge

A 42-year-old Limehouse man was charged with impaired driving after being pulled over at 12:15 Saturday morning at the corner of Main Street South and Church Street. Police say the driver displayed obvious signs of impairment.

Shadow stolen

A 1993 blue Dodge Shadow was stolen from the parking lot behind a Churchill Road, South apartment building overnight Saturday. Anyone with information about the theft is asked to call Crimestoppers at 1-800-668-5151 or Detective Powers at 853-5060.

Sign thrown

A sign post from the north side of Mill Street West was thrown onto the roof of an Oldsmobile parked on Wilbur Street North on Friday night. The victim's girlfriend told police she heard a noise and they found the sign on the car when they went to investigate.
