Penalties nail juveniles

The Acton Juvenile Sabres couldn't buy a goal in last Thursday's 6-0 loss to Trenton in OMHA semi-finals playoff action in Trenton. The loss puts the Sabres down two games to one heading into Saturday's game four in Acton and gives Trenton home ice advantage if the series goes to five games.

"Once we went down three goals we just gave up," explained coach Rob Pembleton in an interview on Monday.

Trenton was up by three power-play goals in the second period and although Pembleton switched goalies, Trenton continued to score and Acton couldn't find the net.

"Our penalties were the turning point of the game because we had to play short-handed," a frustrated Pembleton said.

Acton took game one at home with a 4-3 win in overtime and lost game two 1-0 last Sunday in Trenton.

Game time Saturday is 9:30 p.m. at Acton.

Bantams start playoffs with two wins, loss

The Bruce Hood Travel Bantam 2 team started the TriCounty Playoffs in fine fashion winning two and losing one game this week.
