

Novice Sabres, Shamrocks deadlocked for championship

Acton Nellis Construction Novice 1 Sabres are tied at one game apiece with Erin Shamrocks heading into Saturday's final in Acton.

"When it gets down to the final game anything can happen," coach John Kirkwood said in an interview Tuesday, when asked to predict the outcome.

"We have basically dominated all through Tri-County play all season and are playing really well, but you never know."

Erin took game one of the best-of-three finals with a 2-1 win in Acton last Wednesday. Craig Kirkwood scored the lone Acton goal of the game unassisted. Acton bounced back on Monday night in Erin with a convincing 4-0 victory. Goalie James Burgie was superb in the nets. Garrett Williams, Braden Artem, Greg Henry and Andrew Marcoux scored single goals. Assists went to Kirkwood, Ryan O'Connell, Kyle Fellows, Shaun Harkley and Chris Richard.

Game time Saturday is at 5.30 p.m.

Arena jammed for girls' league wrap-up

Elliott Custom Brokers downed Lawlor and Company 5-2 to take the Halton Hills Girls Hockey Association junior championship title in Acton on Sunday.

The seats were jammed and people were parked out to the highway as the fledgling league wrapped up its first season with the championship game and consolation games, followed by a banquet, attended by the mayor, local councillors and Town officials.

The consolation round went into 5-minute, sudden-death overtime as Skin Essentials edged the Twisters 4-3.

The Freckled Lion blanked First Nations 3-0 to take the intermediate title on Friday. Dave's Service defeated First Nations 3-1 in the consolation round.
