Junior Redmen cop win

Andrew Watson was top scorer for the Acton High Redmen junior boys' soccer team as it captured the championship at an inter-school tournament in Burlington on Friday.

Acton dropped its first game against host M.M. Robinson 1-0, but then came back strong to win its next four games.

Acton's short-game passing improved in the second half of game two, which Acton won with a 2-1 score over Aldershot. Andrew Watson and Jay Waples scored for the Redmen in that game.

Andrew Watson and Samson both scored in Acton's 2-1 blanking of Milton in game three.

Acton met Oakville Trafalgar in the semi-final and pulled off a big 2-1 upset victory with goals from Samson and Stewart.

Acton won the championship game with a 4-3 score over Burlington Central. Watson scored twice while Jeff Payne and Shawn Gray had singles. Acton was down 1-0 but managed to tie it up at the end of the first half. Aldershot came back with two quick goals in the second half and Acton answered with two goals of its own. Acton then scored the go-ahead goal for the win.

Paul Leminski played well in goal in all five of the games.

SENIOR BOYS

Andre Savard was named MVP in last Thursday's senior boys' Swift Kick soccer tournament in Burlington. Savard scored one goal and played well as Acton won one of its three games.

Acton played undermanned for the first game and a half and was blanked 4-0 by M. M. Robinson in game one. The senior Redmen dropped a 5-2 decision to host Lester B. Pearson in game two. Darryn McIntyre scored for Acton in that game.

Acton doubled Milton district High 4-2 to take game three. Andrew Pearson scored twice in that game while Savard and McIntyre each booted singles for the win. Travis Stewart was in goal all three games.

Coach Gord Swanson said that Acton opened the scoring and went up 2-0.

"Burlington came back with one goal and then we went up to 3-1. They came back and got a second goal to make it 3-2 and we put the fourth one in," Swanson said on Friday.

On Wednesday, after deadline, the Redmen met Vanier in an away game in Brampton for its last OFSCA qualifier.

"If we win that we go the championships in the 'A/AA' division. The winner of that game goes onto the next round and then to the regional qualifier and then to the all-Ontario tournament next month," Swanson said.

Last Wednesday the senior boys lost 1-0 at home to T.A. Blakelock in a game that saw lots of back and forth and sometimes chippy play. Phil McIntyre was in goal.

JUNIOR GIRLS

The junior girls wrapped up their season with a 5-1-0 record after being blanked 5-0 by Q.E. Park in inter-school tournament play on Thursday in Oakville.

"For the first half Acton had control of the ball but just couldn't score," explained co-coach Amy Boycott in an interview on Friday.

Acton goalie Jamie Lyons had a good game between the pipes, allowing just one goal. Mid-fielder Chrissy Pereira played well in goal for the second half.

Class of the Syncro set

Halton Hills Association of Synchronized Swimmers attended their first routine competition of 1998 in April at the London Aquatic Centre in London, Ontario.

All three teams sent to London came back with first place. Also competing were London Syncro Club, Brant Syncro club, Chatham Y Orcas and Samia Y Syncro.

The intermediate competitive team: music, Lord of the Dance, was coached by Taryn Kentner at level 4-6 Trillium, ages 15 plus. Members were Nicole Culp, Mandy Greaves, Jolianna Krock, Kendra Peacock, Cristal Sargent, Laura Takahiski and Jennifer Varey.

The senior competitive team swam to Staying Alive under coach Meghan Kentner. Level is Trillium 4-6 and ages 12-14 years. Members are Emily thompson, Meghan Ananthan, Amy Faulhafer, Samantha Thompson, Stephanie Wasyluk.

The senior competitive team which swam to the music of Romeo and Juliet was also coached by Meghan Kentner at a level of Trillium 7 plus for ages 15 and up. Members are Kara Edwards, Jennifer Comstock, Ashley Pilkington, Kristin Grifferty and Jessica Bodie.

Halton Hills swimmers competed at the Wayne Gretzky Centre in Brantford April 25 when the senior team came first, the intermediate team won second and the junior team competing for the first time placed sixth. Members are Jenna Newberry, Sonia Northeast, Adrienne Voltman and Laura Grifferty.

The local club is in its fourth season thanks to all the sponsors which helps pay for pool and lifeguard fees, judges and competition fees and awards as well as hidden costs. Anyone interested may contact Marilyn Krock at 877-7679. The club swims in both Acton and Georgetown.

White hits a grand slam

John White had a grand slam homerun to help the Renegades to a 33-10 drubbing of the Screaming Beavers in Acton adult recreational 3-pitch ball last Wednesday at Prospect Park.

Chris Cowell and Dwayne

Eagleton also hit homers for the Renegades and teammates Leanne Weber, Steff Serretta and Teri Miller played great games.

Stan Rhynold was named most valuable acrobat for the Beavers, who had a couple of good innings early in the game, but crumbled under the Renegades' hot bats.

In other league play the Polecats jumped out to an early lead and never looked back to triple the Slopokes 34-8. Dwayne Rhynold had a homerun for the Slopokes.

Despite homeruns from Richard Cripps and Blake French, the A. P. Tankers had to settle for a 25-15 loss to the Hosers last Wednesday. The Hosers dominated the first half of the game and the Tankers rally in the second wasn't enough.

Note: Apologies to the Hosers (good sports that they are) who didn't play nearly as badly as last week's edition of The New Tanner indicated. Final score was 22-21 for the Polecats..

Burgess steals home

Price Check looked sharp in its season opener but had to settle for a 9-8 loss to Hornby # 1 in Pee wee house league hardball action last Thursday at Prospect Park.

Price Check made two run down plays and one pick off play but still came up one run short of a tie, despite scoring four runs in a fifth inning rally.

Jamie McGhie had three walks and scored three times while Shawn Richards had a single, a double and a walk, scoring three times. Chris Galda had two RBIs and Michael Meade scored once. Tricky Adam Burgess scored once by stealing home on a pass ball.

Coach John Burgess said that McGhie, Krystl Egan and Adam Burgess pitched very well.

Price Check meets Rockwood at Prospect Park tonight.
