What's Inside

Saturday was Cruise Night at Rockwood and they came from places like Puslinch to see the show of cars. The Ellesgood family here with their '55 Chevy Belair was among them. More photos on Page 6.

She's not Casey, but still determined to belt that ball in sports action in town. See Page 9.

Clowns and warlocks were all part of the action at the Parks and Recreation Carnival in the new Acton arena Tuesday night. See Pages 10 and 11 for photos.

Mike O'Leary is just back from a week at the lake and has some fascinating observations on the sport of fishing. See Page 5.

Pizza makers square off

Acton probably has more pizza places per capita than almost anywhere! Godfather, Pizza Giant, Queen's Pizza and Andy's Restaurant all make great pizza, but is one better or more popular than another?

The Leathertown Festival Committee has issued a challenge - show us whose pizza is the best! During the festival on Sunday, Aug. 9, sign up for a Pizza Passport and decide which is the tastiest.

Pizza Passports will be sold at the Acton BIA booth, next to the main stage at Elgin Street, during the festival. The passports will allow you to sample the pizza of each participant.

To make a qualified vote, you have to try each pizza and get your passport stamped. Mark your choice on the passport, include your name and address and deposit the passport in the ballot box at the BIA booth by 4:30 p.m. The winning pizza place will be announced at the end of the festival. As well, one Pizza Passport will be drawn from the lot with the lucky winner receiving $100 in Acton BIA Cheques.

Tanner office closed Monday

In order for the staff of The New Tanner to enjoy the Civic Holiday on Monday, August 3, we're asking anyone with news, advertisements and photos to bring or fax them in as soon as possible for the August 9 issue. The office will be closed Monday, but will reopen on Tuesday, August 4 at 9 a.m.

Town and residents meet

By ANGELA TYLER
The New Tanner

As promised, Town staff and councillor Norm Elliott met with local residents in Kingham late Thursday afternoon to respond to their traffic concerns.

As reported in The New Tanner, Kingham resident Steve Grasby is worried that children playing in the area may be hurt by vehicles travelling too fast or parked cars creating blind spots for other drivers.

Mr. Grasby's original letter to the Town of Halton Hills addressed five issues and since then the Town has followed through with traffic pattern studies and radar surveys. Thursday's meeting tried to resolve parking and snow removal issues. Parking on the south side of Kingham Road, between Greenore Crescent to just below Campbell Court has been a hot topic for residents and council. Excessive amounts of vehicles use this stretch of road to park which makes it difficult for two vehicle pass each other especially if one of them were a commercial vehicle such as a truck or bus.

Another concern is children playing in the area and traffic not being able to see them properly as a result of the parking. The parking issue was also addressed in 1990 with a suggestion of parking 'bays' for cars to park on the south side. These bays would have created 21 spots in the boulevard. Unfortunately the idea did not materialize as the cost was estimated at $25,000.

Town of Halton Hills Traffic Co-ordinator, Bob Butrym, said, "The last time I was here at night, there were 32 cars parked in this stretch." (referring to area between Greenore Crescent and Campbell Court). While the meeting was taking

Town clerk resigns

Halton Hills town clerk Janet Lunn Stewart has resigned effective Sept. 14, Mayor Marilyn Serjeanston revealed this week.

The Burlington resident has accepted a new position as Chief Administrator/Clerk of the Township of Severn after seven years with Halton Hills.

"We'll miss her," the mayor said. "She has done a fantastic job, was a committed professional, and I'm personally disappointed she's going, but I understand the reasons for a career move."

Stewart, in a letter to the mayor announcing her resignation, noted she would be seven years with the Town on Sept. 11 and her time here has been both exciting and rewarding in a great organization. However, she saw her new position as an exciting opportunity.

The letter of resignation will be brought to council Aug. 4. Meanwhile, the clerk will start her vacation period on Tuesday, Aug. 18 and it will expire on her resignation date.
