

IN THE LEAD: The Acton Citizen's Band was the first band in Saturday's parade. - Angela Tyler photo

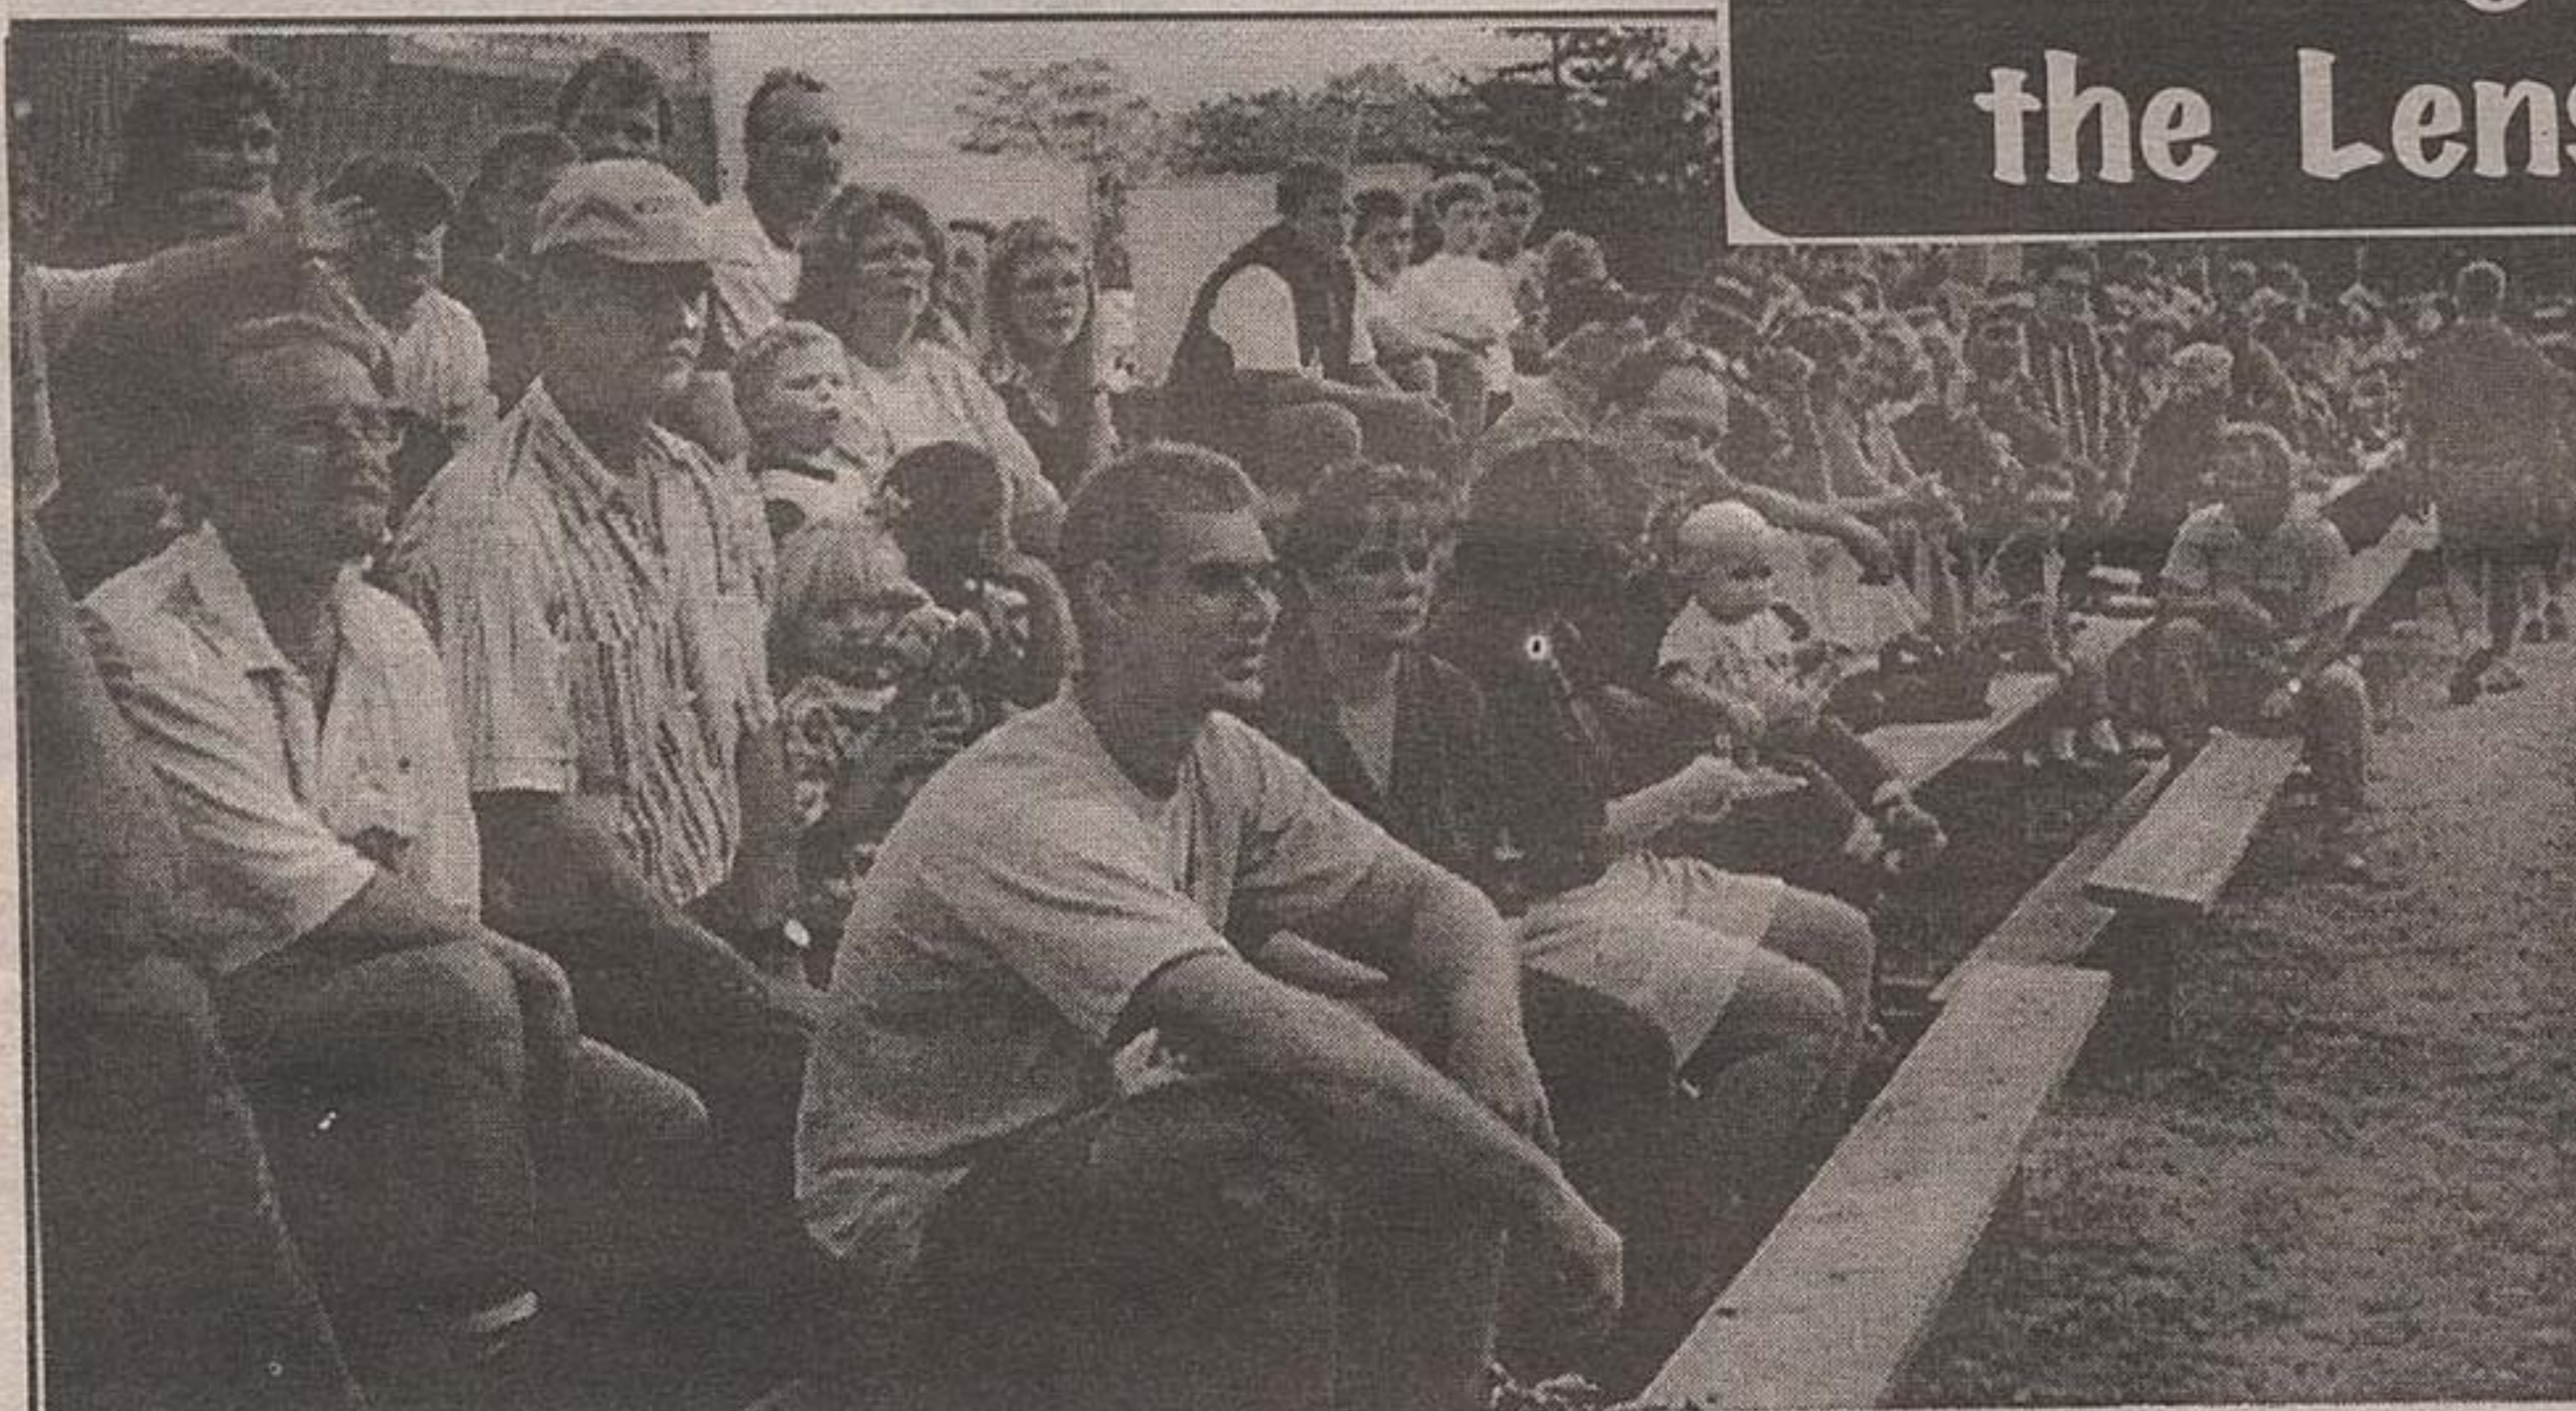

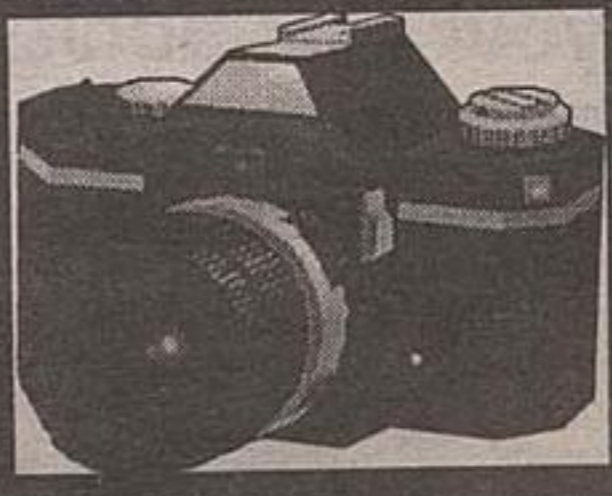

OFF AND PADDLING: The participants of the Crazy Canoe races were neck and neck at the start. Crews from Peter Zions Construction, Dave Black with two teams and Acton Soccer Club try to stay a float. - Angela Tyler photo

IN STEP: Sounds of Pipe bands filled the downtown during Saturday's parade. - Angela Tyler photo

FALL FAIR Through the Lens

GLUED TO THEIR SEATS: Hundreds of visitors to the fair enjoyed the garden tractor pull on Saturday. - Ted Tyler photo

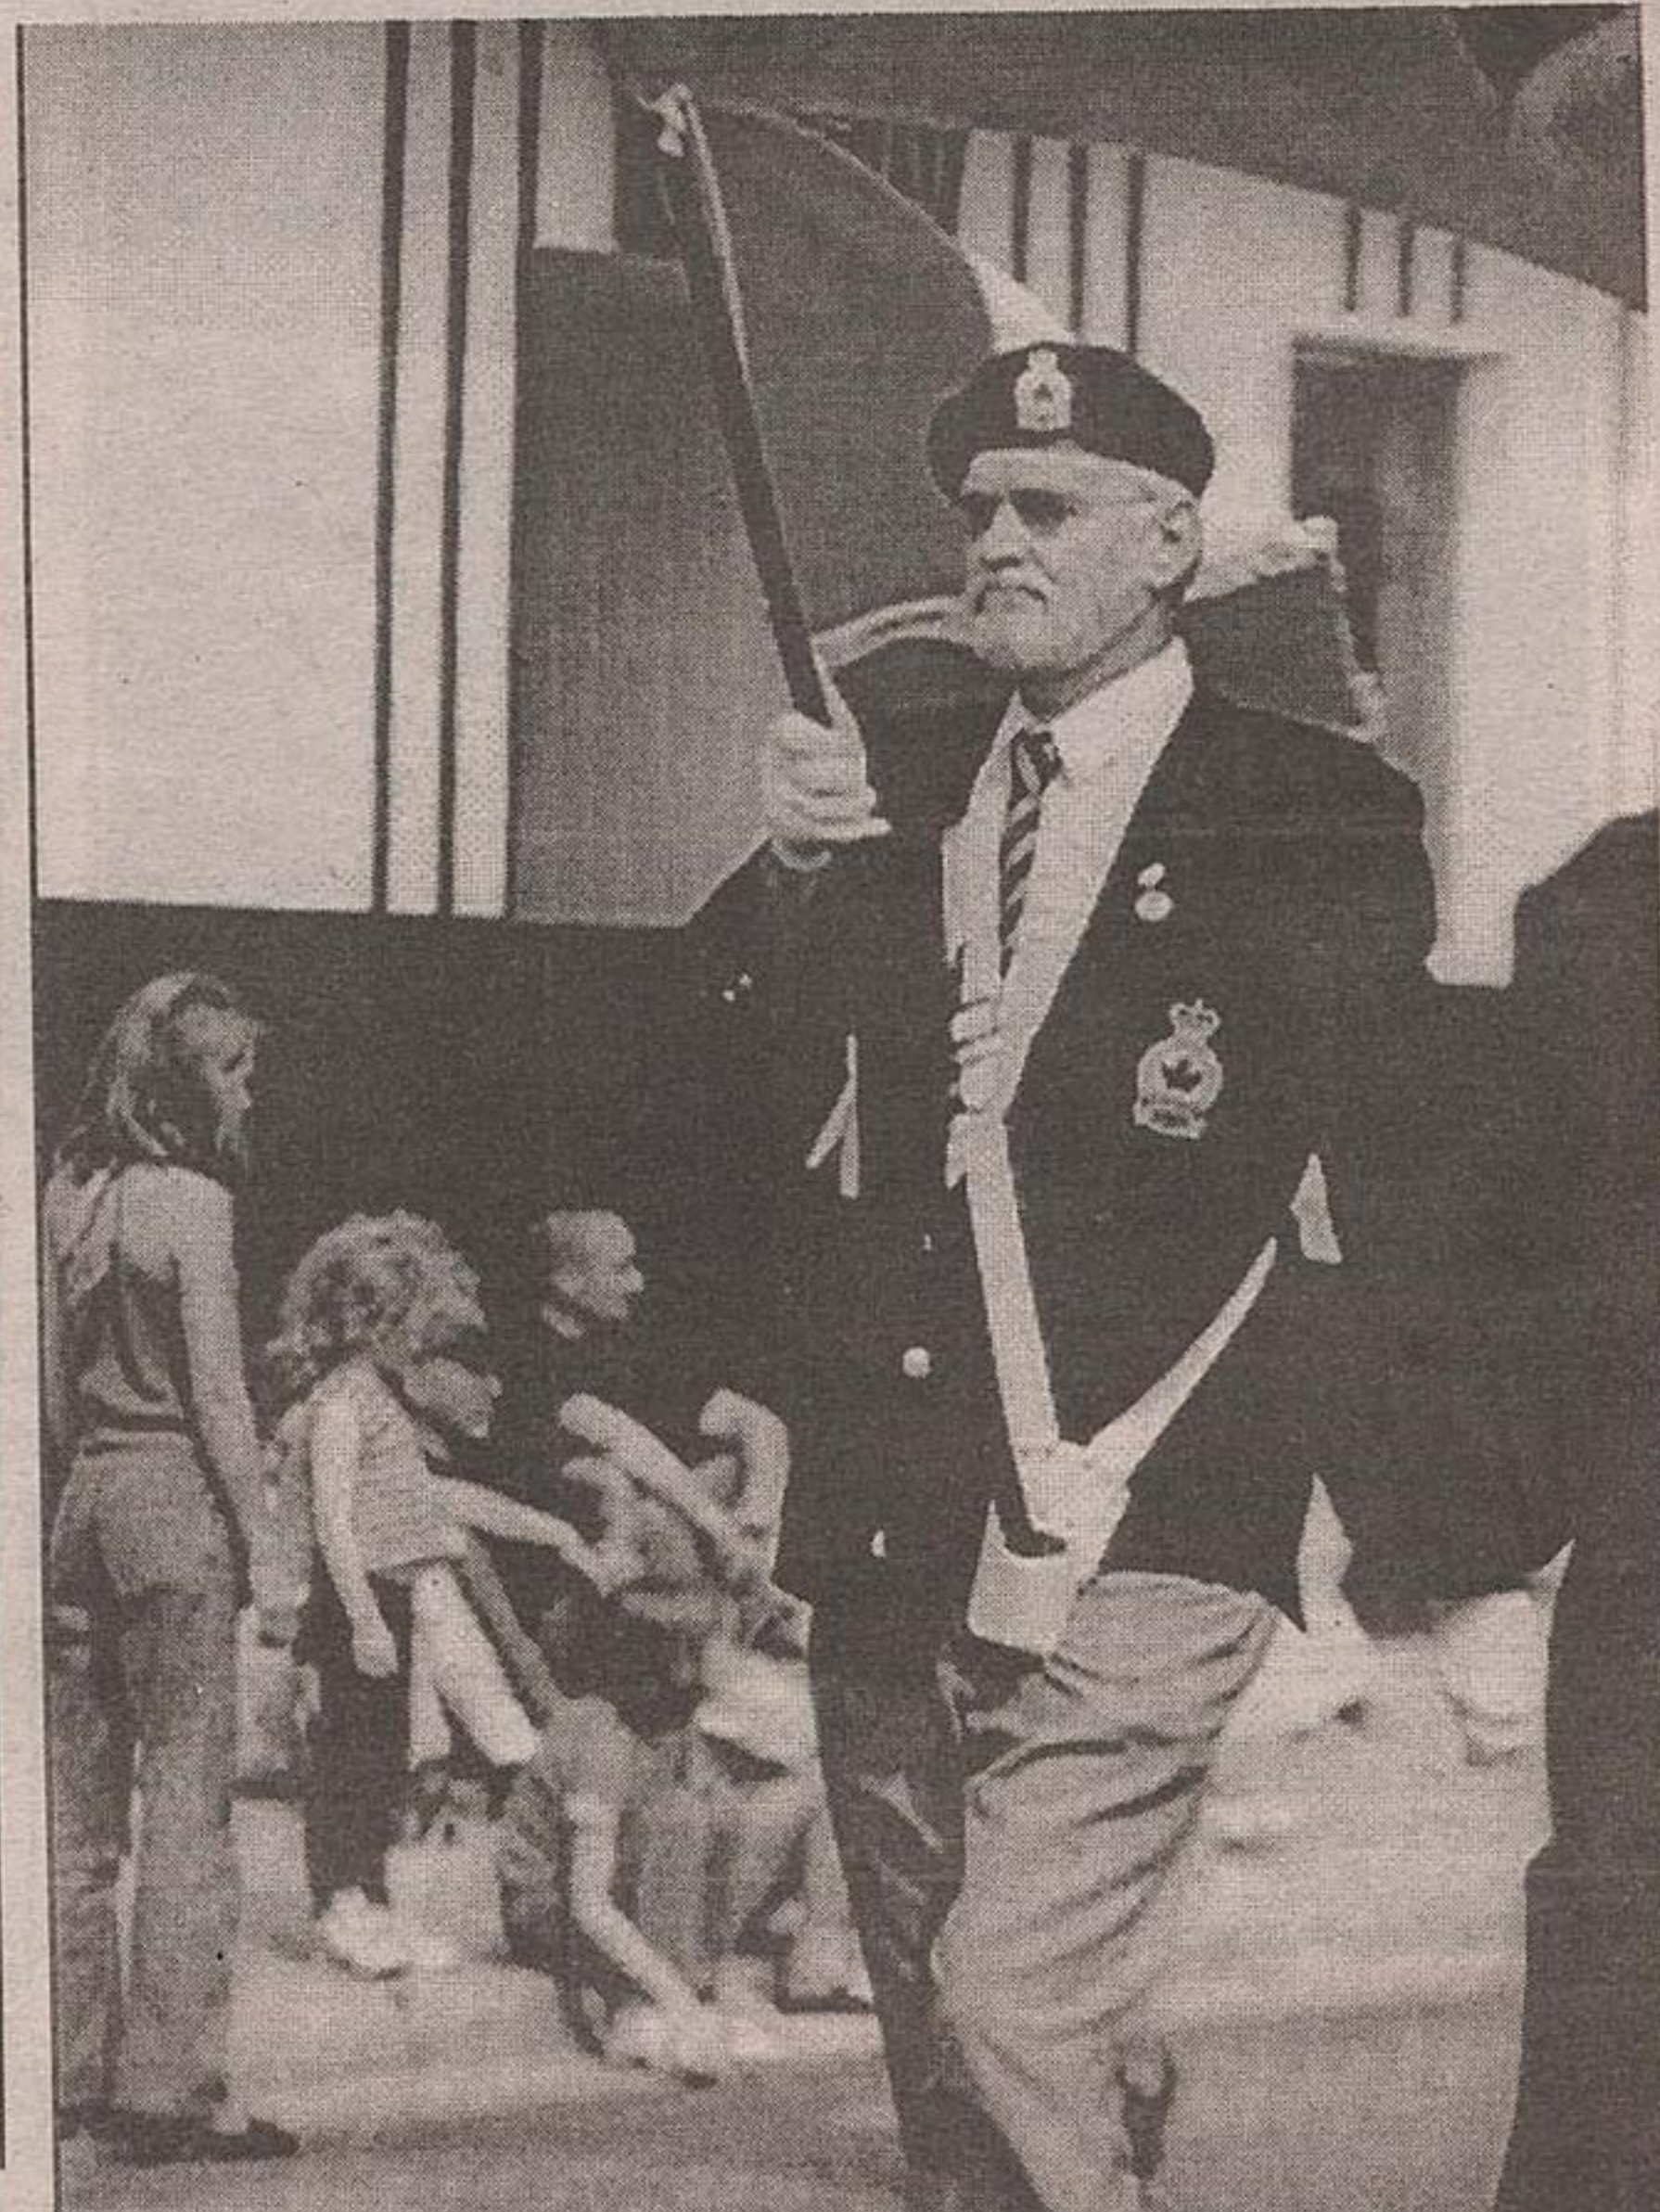

PULLING HARD: Gilbert Dodds made a 282 ft. 4 in. pull with his Farmall 460 rowcrop during Sunday's tractor pull at the Acton Fall Fair. - Maggie Petrushevsky photo

HERE WE COME: Parade favourite, the Rameses Go-Cart Patrol were on hand Saturday. - Angela Tyler photo

KEEPING TIME: Long time members of the Acton Citizen's Band, Harry Ascroft on bass drum and Gerry Paton on snare drum, kept the beat. - Angela Tyler photo

MARCHING PROUDLY: Pressed, polished and flags flying, Acton Legion Branch 197 colour party had cheers of applause during Saturday's parade. - Angela Tyler photo